TAFT STEAM ROLLER HAS SLIPPED A COG

Roosevelt Gets Four Delegates-at-Large from Missouri by a Unaminous Vote of the Committee.

TWELVE OTHERS HANDED TO PRESIDENT

Chicago, June 13.—Four delegates-at-large from Missouri were credited to Colonel Roosevelt by unanimous vote of the republican national committee this afternoon.

The motion was made by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and the decision of the committee gave victory to Governor Hadley in the strenuous fight he has been making to secure the seating of the Roosevelt delegates against the claims of the Taft element, which appeared as contestant in the Missouri cases.

Hadley is One of Them.

The delegates seated by agreement of the Roosevelt double delegation of eight wer Gov. Hadly, Jesse A. Tolerton, Walter S. Dickey, Hugh McIndoe.

The balance of the Roosevelt delegation were seated as alternates. They were Gov. Hadley, Jesse A. Tolerton, Walter S. Dickey, Hugh McIndoe.

Taft Wins Elsewhere.

Contests in six Mississippi districts, the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth, were decided in favor of the Taft delegates at the forenoon session of the committee.

While ostensibly this action added twelve votes to the Taft column, one of the delegates declared entitled to a seat, P. W. Howard, of the Eighth district—appeared on both the Taft and Roosevelt delegations under conflicting instructions.

Questioning by Committeeman members with a view of determining which camp Mr. Howard could be counted failed to bring from him a definite statement, but it was asserted by his attorneys that he would heed the Roosevelt instructions.

Take Up Missouri Cases.

With the Mississippi cases disposed of the national committee took up the Missouri contests involving fourteen seats in the convention. Gov. Hadley's Roosevelt delegate-at-large, is challenged by the Taft supporters and Taft delegations from the First, Third, Fifth, Seventh and Fourteenth districts oppose the regular delegations instructed for Roosevelt. The case of the delegation at large was called first.

Governor Hadley Ready.

The committee planned to hear contests from Mississippi this morning, picking them up where they left off last night after voting to seat the Taft delegates in the First district. The work late yesterday afternoon included the awarding of the six delegates-at-large from Michigan to the president. Contests were before the committee in the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Mississippi districts.

With the Mississippi contests disposed of, the contests in Missouri follow and Gov. Hadley, leader of the contested delegation, who for several days has been sitting on the committee on a proxy, prepared to defend himself and his cohorts of the Roosevelt faction against the claims of the Taft champions.

The principal fight in Missouri centers over the delegates-at-large, the Taft forces claiming the regularity over Gov. Hadley and the Roosevelt supporters.

Will Hurry Matters.

When the committee adjourned last night it was with a determination to hasten hearings to a conclusion and to dispose of Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina and Oklahoma contests today if possible.

But twenty-five members of the committee were present at the opening of today's session, and the contest in the Second district of Mississippi wa the first called. At the suggestion of Committeeman Penrose, attorneys for both sides agreed to consolidate the Second, Fourth, Sixth and Seventh Mississippi districts. Arguments on these cases collectively were then begun.

At the outset Dean E. Ryman, attorney for the Roosevelt contestants, said it would be shown that no conventions were held in these districts at which Taft delegates were regularly elected.

Race Clash a Factor.

Mr. Ryman declared the white voters in the districts refused to allow negro voters to participate in any conventions. "As showing the prejudice against negro voters, it need be said only that in one year in Lincoln county alone 185 men were indicted for participating in lynchings," said Mr. Ryman.

"The Roosevelt republicans determined to give the negroes a chance and we came here with delegates regularly elected on this basis," he said. W. E. Mollison, a negro attorney, asked the committee "to take such action either to prevent the negro delegates being elected or to accept them when they are elected." He asked the committee to reopen the contests of the Mississippi delegates.

EFFORT TO [illegible] MR. HENEY IS A FAILURE.

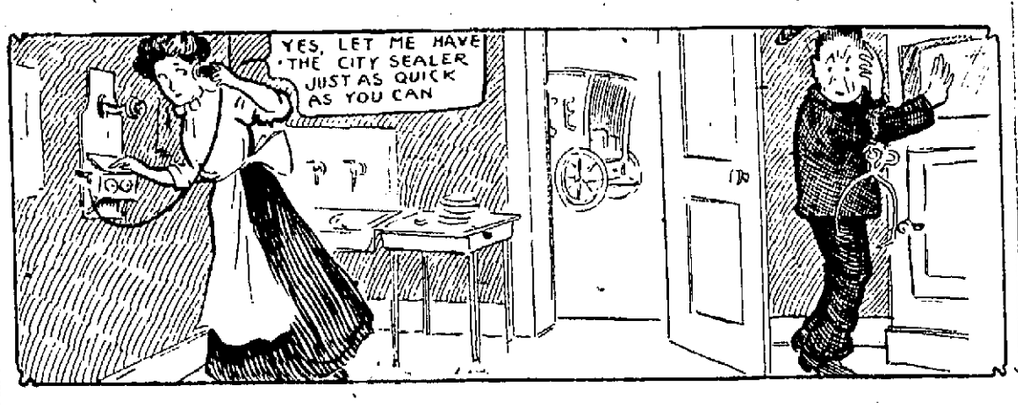

Chicago, June 13.—A motion to exclude Francis J. Heney, of San Francisco, from the republican national committee on the ground that he was a democrat, was made this morning by Committeeman W. S. Sturgess, of Arizona.

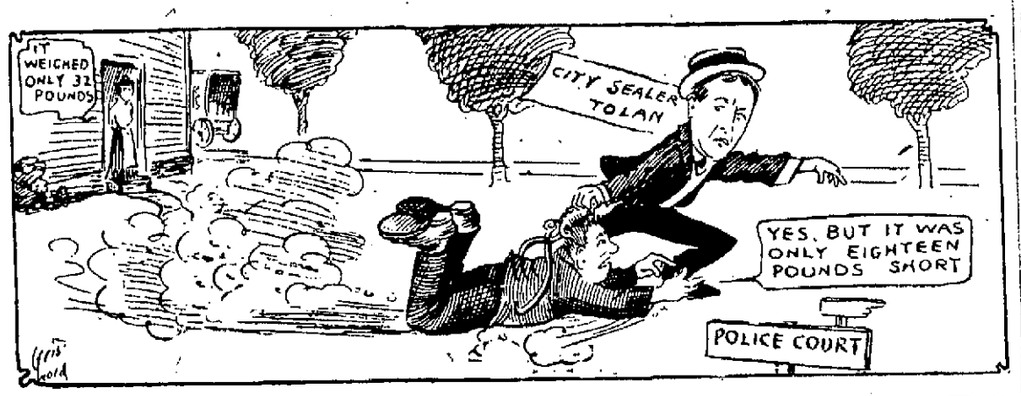

Mr. Heney had presented, a proxy of Thomas Thorson, of South Dakota. Mr. Sturgess said the records showed Heney had run for prosecuting attorney on the democratic ticket in San Francisco. Mr. Heney denied the charge. He said he had refused the democratic nomination, had run on an independent ticket and had been defeated by the "money of Patrick Calhoun."

The committee refused to exclude Mr. Heney, laying the motion on the table.

The New Way Seems to Work Well

Roosevelt Manager Declares Member of Committee Was Offered Federal Job if He Voted for Taft.

New charges of attempted bribery in the battle for delegates were made today by Senator Dixon, campaign manager for Colonel Roosevelt.

He charged that a member of the republican national committee had been offered a United States marshalship if he would vote for Taft on the contests now under consideration.

Says He Can Name the Man.

"I am prepared to name the man, if necessary," said Senator Dixon. "I sent word to the committeeman that any federal appointment made in the nature of a bribe for Taft votes would be held up in the senate."

Senator Dixon dared the Taft managers to be specific and give the name of the Roosevelt leader who is reported to have offered a bribe to a delegate in Alabama and the name of the man who received the money.

It was reported that the Taft managers have under consideration the introduction of a resolution in the convention requiring all delegates to vote according to the instructions given by their states until released by the candidate.

Taft leaders, after a canvass of the situation, declared they expected to control the credentials committee by a vote of 32 to 21.

Delegates Talk Dark Horse.

Many delegates to the republican convention who arrived in the early hours today talked of the advisability of a dark horse candidate for president in the hope of bringing party harmony and success.

The leaders while hoping that some solution of the problem may be brought forward at the eleventh hour, apparently feel that the lines of battle between Taft and Roosevelt have been so sharply drawn and such high feeling aroused that the fight will have to be fought to a finish between the president and Col. Roosevelt.

Everybody is Confident.

Taft supporters apparently were more confident of success than ever after yesterday's victory in the contests before the national committee and freely reiterated their predictions of the renomination of the president on the first ballot.

Roosevelt managers declared that their candidate would have the necessary 540 votes to secure the nomination on the first ballot.

The followers of Senator Cummins, of Iowa, and Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, are expressing the opinion that there will be no choice on the first ballot leaving the inference that they hope their men may be decided on as a compromis candidate.

HAS CLASH WITH MR. UNTERMEYER

THE PANIC DEPOSIT

New York, June 13.—George B. Cortelyou, secretary of the treasury under President Roosevelt, was called to the stand today at the hearing of the Pujo committee investigating the so-called money trust, to tell the manner in which the government deposited $25,000,000 in the New York National banks to help stem the panic of 1907.

Samuel Untermeyer, counsel for the committee, attempted to learn the names of the banks in which the money was deposited, but Mr. Cortelyou said his memory on this subject was poor.

The witness said he came here on the night of Oct. 22, 1907, and conferred with J. P. Morgan, James Stillman, A. Barton Hepburn, George F. Baker, George W. Perkins, Frank A. Vanderlip and other financiers. At another conference the witness said he promised $25,000,000 for distribution among the banks.

"Was there anything said as to where these funds should be deposited—with what banks?"

"I don't recall."

Mr. Untermeyer asked the witness if anything was said about the high rate of call money and the effect on the stock exchange of the failure to get money here, Cortelyou started to give an explanation and was asked sharply to reply to the question.

"You know Mr. Untermeyer," he said, "there are questions I cannot answer yes or no without doing myself an injustice. I have a right to make an explanation of my position and I propose to exercise that right."

This brought forth cheers from the brokers and bankers looking on and a declaration from Chairman Pujo that he would have ejected any one repeating it. Mr. Cortelyou finally said he "probably did have such a discussion but could not recall the details."

OTHER FELLOWS DOING BOLTING

HIS IRE IS AROUSED

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 13.—"They are bolting from the republican party at this moment," said Colonel Roosevelt last night of supporters of President Taft on the republican national committee.

The former president was aroused to a fighting mood by the news which reached him yesterday over his private wires from Chicago. He denounced with all the emphasis he could command the action of the national committee in deciding the contests for seats in the national convention from Kentucky, Arizona and California. He declared that the thirty-seven Taft sup-

There will be no delay in the survey for the proposed deep waterway between Toledo and Lake Michigan by way of the Maumee river and Fort Wayne, and the work will be exhaustive and complete when it is undertaken.

Assurances to this effect have been given Congressman Cyrus Cline and Congressman T. T. Ansberry, of the Defiance district, by General Bixby, chief of the United States army engineering corps. In a telegram to The Sentinel from Washington today Congressman Cline says:

"Congressman Ansberry and myself have assurance from General Bixby this morning that a complete and exhaustive survey of the proposed canal will be entered upon as soon as practicable after the bill passes."

TEN PERILED IN FRANKFORT FIRE

TWO CHILDREN JUMP

Frankfort, Ind., June 13.—Ten persons sleeping in rooms above the restaurant of Mrs. Ella Scherer narrowly escaped death early today when fire swept the interior of the building. John Scherer, 11, and Edmond Scherer, 13, jumped from the second story and were painfully cut. Mrs. Scherer and her two other children were rescued from the roof of the veranda.

MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH.

Lafayette, Ind., June 13.—Michael Caine, aged 27, was dragged to death by a Wabash freight train here this morning. He boarded the train at Danville, Ill., and fell asleep on a flat car. He rolled off as the train sped along and his foot became fastened in a brake beam. He was dragged miles and his body was ground to a pulp. His home was in Cleveland, Ohio.

PROBLEM WILL BE NEW TO THE WEST

Opening of Panama Canal Will Make Immigration Vital Subject.

CONFERENCE AT WORK

Cleveland, Ohio, June 13.—The host of delegates to the 38th annual conference of charities and corrections bent upon putting in a full week of work, gathered early today for a general session, at which brief oral reports from the various states and territories were submitted, showing the progress of the work on which the organization is engaged. Appointment of committees and other business of the conference was considered. The conference later was to break into sections, each considering matters within its own scope. One considered housing and recreation and another children.

Before the latter section the chief feature scheduled was an address by Wilbur C. Phillips, secretary of the child welfare committee, of Milwaukee, Wis., on a community plan for infant welfare work.

Arguing that the Pacific coast is in actual need of having the 1913 meeting in one of its cities, delegates from Seattle, Wash., are making a determined fight to have the next conference there.

"With the opening of the Panama canal," said a delegate today, "a vast horde of European immigrants, attracted by cheaper transportation rates, will pour into the Pacific coast cities. It is highly necessary that the people out there be awakened to the situation and instructed in time as to the proper means of dealing with the immigration question.

"So far western cities have had to contend with almost none of the problems that the Atlantic seaboard cities have faced."

PIPE LINES ARE CALLED TO TIME

They Are Common Carriers Under Decision of the Committee.

MUST OBEY THE LAW

Washington, June 13.—The interstate commerce commission today held that pipe line companies transporting oil between the states are common carriers, with the obligations of such, and ordered thirteen of the largest oil pipe lines to file schedules of rates by September 1 and to comply with the provisions of the interstate commerce act.

It is the conclusion of the commission that the congress in designating oil pipe lines as "common carriers" meant precisely what was said in the statute. The commission rules:

That the obligations of a common carrier are impressed upon a pipe line engaged in the transportation of oil in interstate commerce even though such pipe line was built over its privately acquired right of way and transports only its own oil.

That such traffic is not divested of its interstate character by placing the ownership of the pipe line in different corporations in each state through which the transportation passes, or by transferring title to the oil to each of such corporations as the oil enters the pipes of that corporation.

The pipe lines against which the commission's order is directed are:

Oklahoma Pipe Line company, Prairie Oil and Gas company, Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, Ohio Oil company, Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, Tidewater Pipe company, Ltd., Producers and Refiners Oil company, Ltd., United States Pipe Line company, Pure Oil company, Pure Oil Pipe Line company, National Pipe Line company, Uncle Sam Oil company and Uncle Sam Oil Company of Kansas.

Elopers Have Returned and Are Celebrating Their Honeymoon

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL ORMSBY, JR

When Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ormsby, jr., posed for The Sentinel today they had not sought the forgiveness of Mrs. Meriam Major, mother of the bride, who was formerly Miss Myrl Major, a high school student, and they still had this ordeal before them, but felt confident that it would be forthcoming and that their romance would follow out the lines of the old story books in which all "lived happily forever afterward."

Their marriage was celebrated at Coldwater, Mich., yesterday and they returned last night to the Ormsby home at 514 West Main street, where they were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ormsby, parents of the groom, who had no objection to the marriage and who seemed proud of their new daughter-in-law.

They left Fort Wayne early yesterday morning over the G. R. & I. and had no difficulty obtaining a marriage license at Coldwater and a minister there performed the ceremony. Immediately afterward they took up their homeward journey and arrived late last night. Mrs. Major was informed of their return but did not call and the newly weds preferred to wait until today before asking her blessing.

Why the Cistern Went Dry

ONE DAY when I got home from work," said A. D. Fox, of the Perfection Biscuit company's plant, who lives at 1308 West Wayne street, "I found the household much distressed over the fact that the cistern had suddenly gone dry. It was nearly full the day before, and we had had a little rain in the night, and the circumstances seemed strange in the extreme.

"I had a man come out and examine the cistern for leaks, but he couldn't find anything that looked like a sure-enough crack, but he went down into it and made some repairs for luck anyway. Well, when it rained again we watched the cistern anxiously and were gratified to find that it held water all right. Gradually it filled up again, and we had almost forgotten the previous experience when, one day, after an extra hard rain, we found the cistern entirely empty again.

"We were puzzled. I began to do a little scientific investigating, and what do you suppose was the solution? Give it up? Well, sir, some time ago I bought a patent arrangement by which a cistern cleans itself. It consists of pipes so arranged that when a cistern gets entirely full, it overflows into the sewer in such a way as to take the dirty water from the bottom of the cistern first, instead of causing the top water to run off as is the case with the ordinary overflow from a cistern. Well, the thing works all right, and there are a good many of the appliances in use in Fort Wayne, but in my case it was a Jonah. Why? Well, you see, my lot on West Wayne street is so situated that the sewer is lower than the bottom of my cistern. When the water in the cistern commenced to overflow the pipes formed a siphon and the thing wouldn't stop running until the cistern was empty."

"He Couldn't find anything."

HONOR PUPILS RECEIVE MEDALS

Awards Given by J. C. Hutzell to Pupils of Nebraska School.

IS ANNUAL AFFAIR

The annual awarding of gold medals for scholarship and deportment to four pupils of the Nebraska school took place this morning at the Bethany Presbyterian church. The medals are the annual gifts of Joseph C. Hutsell, chairman of the board of public safety. The children receiving the medals are:

Douglas Thomson, 6A grade, average 96 per cent; Rosamond M. Noll, 6B grade, average 97.6 per cent; Harold Robbins, 2B grade, average 97.3 per cent; Edna C. Ferneau, 3A grade, 97.1 per cent.

The pupils of the school marched in a body to the church this morning. E. W. Cook, treasurer of the school board, acted as chairman of the meeting. Rev. C. O. Shirey pronounced the invocation and Supt. J. N. Study presented the honor pupils with their medals.

Mr. Hutzell attended the Nebraska building when a boy and has never lost a warm interest in the school. For a number of years he has offered these rewards to the boy and girl of the primary and grammar grades who attained the highest average in deportment, attendance and studies.

The generosity of Mr. Hutzell has proven an incentive to many a child attending the school and his act is much appreciated by the principal and teachers of the school as well as by the parents. A. P. Leverton is principal of the Nebraska school.

choice of the Taft leaders for temporary chairman of the convention, was expected from Washington this afternoon and his appearance on the scene is anxiously awaited. It was expected that immediately upon his arrival he would go into conference with Director McKinley, of the Taft bureau, to devise plans for the temporary organization of the convention. There was less talk today of opposition to Senator Root's selection as temporary chairman. The Roosevelt men apparently have not agreed on a candidate for the position, but declare they will have one when the time comes.

Dick and Fairbanks.

Former Senator Charles Dick, of Ohio, was brought forward as a candidate for chairman of the committee on credentials, while Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, still is mentioned as a likely candidate for chairman of the committee on resolutions.

The postponement until Monday evening of the Roosevelt mass meeting called by William Kent, of California, and Medill McCormick, of Chicago, for tomorrow afternoon was discussed by politicians today and several reasons assigned for the change in the plans. One reason suggested was that the promoters desired to hold off until the last minutes in the hope that Col. Roosevelt may decide to come to Chicago and be the principal speaker. Another story was that it was deemed advisable to delay the rally until after the national committee finishes the hearing of contests.

Negro Attorney Is Heard.

For the Taft forces, W. J. Latham, a negro attorney, declared he had affidavits denying that no notice was given of conventions to elect delegates from the Second, Fourth, Sixth and Seventh districts. The affidavits showed, he said, that a regular call was issued for the conventions. He denied that the Taft adherents had opposed negro voters or had declined to have negroes participate in the conventions. On a viva voce vote the committee then voted to seat the eight Taft delegates from the districts under consideration.

A chorus of "noes" came from the Roosevelt side, but Chairman Rosewater ruled the motion carried.

The Fifth Mississippi district contest was called next. In the midst of the Mississippi fight just before the Fifth district case was taken up the bitter feeling toward Francis J. Heney, of San Francisco, again broke out.

More Anti-Heney Feeling.

Mr. Heney had come in on the proxy of Thomas Thorson, of South Dakota, which he had held in previous sessions of the committee. Committeeman W. S. Sturgess, of Arizona, made a formal motion that Mr. Heney's proxy be refused and Mr. Heney excluded. He said the records showed the San Francisco man had run for prosecuting attorney on a democratic ticket in that city.

"As I am still in the committee I'll say something for myself," said Mr. Heney. "I refused to accept the democratic nomination. I did run as an independent candidate and was defeated by the money of Patrick Calhoun."

Committeeman Chubb of Florida, said he wanted to hear more about Abe Reuf of San Francisco. On his motion the proposal to exclude Mr. Heney was tabled without opposition and the San Francisco Roosevelt supporter was allowed to retain his seat as a committee member.

Taft Men Contestants.

In the Fifth Mississippi district the Taft delegates were the contestants. The attorneys said they would rest their case on affidavits and records purporting to show that their delegates were regularly elected. A. D. Hill, of Boston, appeared for the Roosevelt delegates.

"The negro voters and many other Roosevelt supporters were deliberately ejected from the convention which the Taft forces called," he said.

"The Roosevelt men thereupon went across the street and held another convention which was regular in every respect." Mr. Hill appealed to the committee to split the delegation from this district, giving Roosevelt and Taft one delegate each. He declared the "republican party in the south did not exist and if one of these delegations was irregular they both were."

Heney Mixes It Again.

During the discussion Mr. Heney had an interchange with Chairman Rosewater. Replying to a criticism of his method of examining one of the contestants, Mr. Heney called to his critics:

"I would like to get you on the witness stand."

"Mr. Heney will address his remarks to the chair," said Chairman Rosewater.

"I am just trying to protect myself," said Heney.

The two Taft delegates from the Fifth Mississippi district were seated by a viva voce, Roosevelt adherents voting "No." A request for a roll call was refused.

The Eighth Mississippi district contest was then taken up. Dean C. Ryman appearing for the Roosevelt contestants declared National Committeeman Moseley had issued his own personal tickets of admission to the convention hall.

Requisites in Mississippi.

"The first requisite to holding a political convention in Mississippi is to get a couple of policemen at the door, with guns in their hands," said S. D. Redmond, a negro Roosevelt attorney. "This is especially true when a national committeeman is running matters."

Had Been an Agreement.

There were hurried conferences between committeemen and delegates on the floor and Delegate Howard finally said there had been "an agreement."

Senator Borah at once denounced the making of any agreement on the committee floor as "an insult and outrage. We came here in good faith to hear contests," declared Borah; "the idea that agreements to trade votes can be made on this floor is an outrage that should result in throwing out all these votes."

Delegate Howard said the "agreement" was for "peace and harmony" and did not concern the Taft-Roosevelt fight. It contemplated the seating of the three Taft delegates with two-thirds vote each.

Double Contest Develops.

Redmond said the Taft delegates in the Eighth district were professional jurors of the locality. He asserted Committeeman Moseley had refused tickets of admission to delegates who were unfriendly to Taft.

A double contest developed in this district. Wesley Crayton and George C. Granberry claimed to be the regular Taft delegates, but P. W. Howard appeared to contest Granberry's seat.

The charges of the use of force and intimidation were denied by Taft attorneys.

"If you are entitled to a full vote," demanded Borah, "why do you now give up one-third of your vote?"

Mr. Howard declared all of the three delegates were instructed for Taft and that there had been no "trade" or "deal" involving Taft or Roosevelt support. The proposal to seat all three delegates, with two-thirds vote each, he said, was to bring peace in the local Mississippi situation.

Was for "Roosevelt Down Stairs."

Delegate Howard appeared in the contest records also as one of the Roosevelt delegates. He was asked if he had been requested by Committeeman Moseley to sign a letter pledging himself to Taft. He said he had been asked to sign a Taft pledge, but had refused to pledge himself to Taft, Roosevelt or any one else. The convention which elected him, Howard asserted, had "instructed for Taft" and he was "for Roosevelt down stairs." He was asked which he considered the regular convention.

"Well, as I was elected by both, I don't want to throw any stones at either," he answered. The committee finally seated Crayton and Howard unanimously on motion of Committeeman Moseley. While both are listed as Taft delegates, Howard also is claimed by the Roosevelt forces. The Missouri contests were then taken up.

Fourteen in Question.

These contests filed by the Taft forces involved the four votes of the delegates-at-large and two delegates each from the First, Third, Fifth, Seventh and Fourteenth districts, fourteen in all.

Gov. Hadley's delegation-at-large numbered eight, selected by the state convention to cast a half vote each at the Chicago convention. The Taft delegation-at-large, headed by John C. Black, included four members, the number specified by the call for the Chicago convention.

The case of the delegates-at-large opened the fight. Grant Gillespie, attorney for the contesting Taft delegates, took up the history of the Missouri state convention at which Gov. Hadley's Roosevelt delegation was selected. The Taft forces, he said, had controlled the state committee by 18 to 14 and had decided the contests on the night before the convention.

Had Plenty of Police.

Police took possession of the convention hall at sunrise, he said, under orders of the state officers and 147 police and an equal number of militia were in possession of it in the morning of the convention day.

"It was commonly stated" he said, "that they were there to act if the state committee unseated the Roosevelt delegation from Jackson county."

A new committee including Gov. Hadley and Secretary Nagel, President Taft's representative, then took up the contests, he said, and an agreement was reached to seat four Taft and four Roosevelt men without instructions to cast Missouri's four votes-at-large in the Chicago convention. This agreement was endorsed by the republican state committee, he said, by a vote of 30 to 2 and it was expected it would be followed by the state convention. Gov. Hadley was made permanent chairman of the state convention.

The resolutions then offered, he said, made no reference to Col. Roosevelt. At this point, declared Mr. Gillespie, Chairman Hadley asked the convention to "indulge" the resolutions committee a few minutes while it corrected a "misunderstanding" in the resolutions. The convention proceeded to elect eight delegates and their alternates.

Hadley in Committee Room.

Chairman Hadley left the chair, said Mr. Gillespie, and went into the room where the resolutions committee was still working. When the committee finally came in with its report, he said, it was "5 or 6 o'clock in the morning and most of the delegates had gone home."

"There were about 200 of the 1,152 delegates then present," said Mr. Gillespie.

"It had been generally understood the convention should proceed peaceably to the end."

The re-drawn resolutions, explained Gillespie, referred in complimnetary terms to Col. Roosevelt, but did not instruct for him.

The resolution to instruct for Roosevelt was offered from the floor, he said, when the majority of the delegates had gone.

"There can be no question about the agreement having been made as to the Missouri delegates-at-large," Mr. Gillespie asserted.

Answering Gov. Stubbs, of Kansas, Mr. Gillespie said the Taft forces held 494½ uncontested votes and the Roosevelt men 464½, while more than 200 were in contests. This situation, he said, had resulted in the agreement to divide the delegation.

What "the Boys" Usually Do.

Theodore N. Joslyn, holding a proxy in the committee, asked Mr. Gillespie if the convention itself had authorized the alleged agreement to divide the delegation.

"No," said Gillespie.

"Was it binding on that convention?"

"No, but when the leaders get together and make such an agreement the boys usually carry it out."

Mr. Gillespie declared that Gov. Hadley had arbitrarily tried to adjourn the convention at 6 o'clock after the Roosevelt instructions were passed.

"We then refused to recognize such action and took a recess to meet at the Planters' hotel at 7:30 a. m.," said Gillespie.

He claimed Gov. Hadley had never "put the motion" to adjourn and that 50 or 75 of those left in the hall went to the Planters' hotel and there carried on the convention which elected the contesting Taft delegates.

Pressed by Gov. Stubbs, Mr. Gillespie admitted the Roosevelt forces had a majority of the state convention when the Hadley delegates were elected and that each of the delegates had received a good majority of votes. "But we claim there were 125 Roosevelt men in the convention who had no legal right there," he said.

Hadley Begins "Defense."

Gov. Hadley when he began the "defense" of the Roosevelt delegation's right to seats in the national convention declared Missouri was entitled to especial consideration from the national committee.

"Upon your decision of the issues here depends whether there shall remain in Missouri a republican party," he said.

Gov. Hadley declared "paper contests" had been instituted by the Taft forces in an effort to control the state convention. He said the state committee had decided all but eight county contests, and that these had been referred to a committee of six, with Secretary Nagel and Gov. Hadley as "advisers."

The settlement of these affairs was the only thing that the committee was authorized to do declared Gov. Hadley.

Secretary Nagel declined to take part in their settlement, saying that as national committeeman, he would have to pass on the issues here at Chicago. "They importuned us to make some agreement there to divide the state delegation," continued Gov. Hadley. "I declined absolutely to consider any such plan. I told them that the state convention was the only body that could settle such questions."

Regarded as "Frivolous."

He declared the sub-committee had approved the seating of the contested Kansas City and St. Joseph delegations, not as part of agreement, but because the contests were regarded as "frivolous."

"They fully recognized that this would make a 'Roosevelt convention,'" he said.

He denied there had been any agreement to select eight men divided between Taft and Roosevelt. The conventon proceeded harmoniously, he said, until the matter of resolutions was reached.

"There was a delay because of the loss of a sheet of the resolutions," he explained. It was not until a resolution was offered from the floor, instructing for Roosevelt, that there arose any question of an agreement on the question of instructions or division of the delegation. Gov. Hadley denied absolutely that any previous agreement had been made on any subbject except the seating of the contested delegates. He presented affidavits and the records of the convention to show that other men in the sub-committee meeting also had no knowledge of any agreement to divide the Missouri delegation or to prevent instructions for Roosevelt.

Calls Fabrication Complete.

"A more complete fabrication has never been presented to you," said Gov. Hadley, "than the statement that there was no official adjournment of that convention."

He produced sworn records of the official stenographers endorsed by the regular officers of the convention to show that it had adjourned on a formal motion, properly put and carried.

"This proposition that there had been no adjournment was never thought of," declared the governor, "until weeks afterward. President Taft's own manager did not sanction such action.

"Where was Charles Nagel? Where was Mayor Kreisman? Where was Otto Steifel? All of them were silent, or advised against this action."

Representative Bartboldt, holding Secretary Nagel's proxy, asked Gov. Hadley if he knew that a proposition had been made to divide the delegation, "giving five to Roosevelt and three to Taft."

"No, I do not know of such a proposition," answered Gov. Hadley, who declared the Missouri contest was based on the assertion "that this committee would seat any contesting delegation brought up to it."

Mr. Hadley announced at the close of his argument that four of the Roosevelt delegates at large had offered to withdraw, thus leaving the official number, four, on the Roosevelt delegation.

Representative Bartholdt, when Gov. Hadley had concluded, told the committee that repeated efforts had been made in Missouri before the state convention to "divide the delegation half and half."

"The general impression," said Mr. Bartholdt, "when this sub-committee on which sat Gov. Hadley and Secretary Nagel, adjourned, was that an agreement had been made to divide the delegation half and half." He said he believed there had been a "breach of faith" by the Hadley-Roosevelt forces.

The Efforts for Peace.

Gov. Hadley replied that Representative Bartholdt's activities in behalf of "international peace" had been much more effective than his votes for "political peace in Missouri." He admitted there had been efforts to "limit the zones of hostilities" in certain districts, but said he had taken part in no agreement as to state delegates.

On the conclusion of the presentation of the case the national committee, by unanimous vote, declared the Roosevelt delegates at large entitled to seats in the convention. The delegation of eight was divided, four being given regular recognition and the other four being named as alternates. The committee spent no time in debate of its decision, but awarded the delegates at large to Col. Roosevelt without a roll call.

The First Missouri district contest then was taken up, but after attorneys for both sides had assembled, the committee took a brief recess.

RAN AS INDEPENDENT.

But Heney Had Endorsement of Democratic Voters.

San Francisco, June 13.—Francis J. Heney, whom it was declared at Chicago today ran as a democrat in this city, announced early in 1909 that he would be an independent candidate for district attorney of San Francisco. He was opposed by Charles M. Fickert, candidate of the republican party.

A bitter campaign, the outgrowth of the graft prosecution, of which Heney was in charge as special district attorney, followed and Heney's supporters appealed to citizens of all parties to write his name on the ballots in the open primary election.

A sufficient number of democrats wrote in Heney's name to give him the democratic endorsement. He continued through the campaign as an independent, asking the support of both parties.

Previous to the election Heney had aided in organizing the Lincoln-Roosevelt League of California.

WILL MEAN EARLY ACTION.

Immediate Hearing in Lighting Tangle at Louisville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., June 13.—Impetus to the legal dispute between the city of Louisville and the Byllesby syndicate, of Chicago, which seeks to acquire Louisville's lighting facilities, was given in common pleas court today, when attorneys representing the contenders agreed to admit the injunction asked by the city so that the case may immediately be taken to the court of appeals for final settlement. The injunction restrains the stockholders of the Kentucky Electric company from transferring their holdings to the Byllesby syndicate, which recently bought the Louisville Gas company and the Louisville Lighting company. The facts in the case are agreed on among the contending lawyers and now the appeals court will determine the law. Mayor Head, who brought the injunction suit claims that amalgamation of the lighting facilities under one head would set up a monopoly.

MEXICANS TIRE OF REVOLUTION

Feeling Now Grows Very Bitter Against the Rebels.

PEACE MOVE LIKELY

At Gen. Huerta's Federal Headquarters, Santa Rosalia, Mexico, June 13.—Indignant at the devastation of the rebels on their northward retreat, residents of this district have become bitter against the revolutionists and as a consequence Gen. Huerta could have thousands of recruits for the asking. This section had been stripped of provisions, horses and staples, which isolated farmers had provided for themselves with difficulty. At Conchos, two stations north of here on the Mexican Central, the rebels have just taken 36 tons of high grade silver ore valued at about $30,000 and three tons of medium grades silver metal. The silver was owned by the Naica Mining company and the rebels are reported by federal scouts to have gone to Chihuahua enroute to Juarez to convert their booty into coin.

That the Mexican people are rapidly tiring of revolution was indicated today by the arrival of advices from Inde El Oro and other cities in the state of Durango, making overtures to Gen. Huerta for peace. They ask only guarantees of safety in case of surrender. Gen. Huerta has granted these guarantees to all who will surrender unconditionally.

Homer A. Scott, an El Paso photographer, arrived here yesterday after a thrilling dash from the rebel lines to the federal camp. Scott has been isolated for six weeks with the rebel columns under Generals Campa and Arguedo in the Torreon district and a few days ago returned to Chihuahua only to learn that Jimenez, where he had left many films while the town was under Orozco's control, had now become a federal town. Anxious to recover his pictures, he ran the gauntlet of pickets on the federal front. Gen. Huerta has not made a prisoner of Scott, but decided to hold him here for some time as he fears that the rebels may get hold of him again and force him to describe the federal equipment.

Fully dressed Mrs. Stokes said she had not undressed for bed last night but had spent the night hiding in a closet. She was informed she said, that her sister had been murdered by the "black hand" in New York and that she herself was "marked." She came here hunting employment.

RAINMAKERS WIN OUT.

Efforts Bring Showers in Texas, With More in Prospect.

Ansoff, Texas, June 13.—Rainmakers, after disturbing the atmosphere with continued explosions of dynamite for five hours near here yesterday, were rewarded with a few showers last night. The sky is overcast today and a good rain seems likely. Discouraged by the long drouth residents of Anson, Stamford and Hamlin, in Jone county, began the firing on the prairie about five miles from here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. It was kept up until 3 p. m., when the first drops of rain fell. It was something like the beginning of a summer shower. This continued for some time, but the fall was too light to be of benefit.

Mills began his career twenty-five years ago as a candy "butcher" at South Bend picnics. He saved his money and at the time of his death was reported to be worth $250,000.

ALL ASKED TO PARTICIPATE.

Flag Day Will Be Ushered In With Patriotic Display of National Colors.

Tomorrow is flag day and in observance of the occasion Fort Wayne homes and business houses will be bautifully decorated in national colors. Old Glory will fly from everywhere. There is no regular program for the observance in Fort Wayne, but the Mary Penrose Wayne chapter, D. A. R., which has exercises in the afternoon at Robinson park, asks that the people of the city unfurl their flags and that due reverence be paid to the national banner by the school children of the city.

DO NOT LIKE THE IDEA.

Havana, June 13.—Secretary of the Interior Bru informed the Associated Press that the proposition to send Major General Leonard Wood or Brigadier General Enoch H. Crowder on a mission to Cuba, would be regarded with disfavor by the government if they came with authority to arrange terms of settlement between the government and the insurgents.

WILL MAP OUT A CONVENTION PLAN

WAITING ON CHICAGO

Baltimore, Md., June 13.—Informal meetings of national committeemen with National Chairman Mack within the next week are expected to outline the plan of convention proceedings that will be formally adopted by the arrangements committee, which meets on June 20 to select the temporary officers of the democratic convention.

Chairman Mack was due to arrive here early this afternoon to open headquarters of the national committee and confer with several national committeemen already on the scene of the convention campaign. Reports that Chairman Mack would retire as head of the national committee are not credited today by national committeemen, who say that Chairman Mack's retirement is a question that lies mainly between the presidential candidate and Mr. Mack. The chairman has not indicated to his friends what he proposes to do.

Headquarters for Governor Wilson and Speaker Champ Clark are expected to be opened here within a day or so and representatives of both candidates are here looking over the arrangement of rooms.

Baltimore awaits on Chicago, says the national committeemen of the democratic party now in the city. There is little disposition, the leaders declare, to start the political pots a-boiling until the republican national convention has thoroughly uncovered its hand.

porters on the national committee "have shown their profound and abiding disloyalty to the party which in theory they represent and which in practice they have betrayed."

Colonel Roosevelt laid special emphasis upon the seating of the Taft delegates from one California district. He said that of the thirty-seven national committeemen who have "robbed the republicans of California of two of their delegates and have presented the stolen goods to Mr. Taft, there is just one man who is entitled to speak for the republicans of his state."

The colonel expressed his opinion that the national convention would not ratify the seating of the Taft delegates from California.

"What do you think the twenty-four Roosevelt delegates seated from California will do if the convention declines to admit the other two?" Colonel Roosevelt was asked.

"I am not going to try to say what they will do," replied the colonel. "I am not making any prophesies."

Colonel Roosevelt declined to comment upon the statement of William Flinn, of Pittsburg, and other supporters that the members of the electoral college from several republican states which have been carried by Roosevelt at the primaries would cast their votes for him in case President Taft is renominated. When he was asked if he had decided whether he would go to Chicago Colonel Roosevelt replied smilingly:

"I am not going in the next half hour anyway."

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORING TOWNS

FRED L. FEICK IS NAMED FOR SENATOR

Selected by Democrats to Make the Race in the DeKalb-Steuben Senatorial District.

Ashley, Ind., June 13.—Fred L. Feick, of Garrett, was nominated for joint senator Wednesday afternoon by the democrats at the convention of the DeKalb-Steuben joint senatorial district, held here. No other name was presented and his nomination was made by acclamation. The speech placing him in nomination was made by E. M. McKennan, of Garrett.

James R. Nyce, of Angola, was nominated for joint prosecuting attorney by acclamation, his name being presented by Charles Notter, of Angola. W. H. McIntyre, the proprietor of the Auburn Courier, presided over the convention.

Mr. Feick, who was nominated for joint senator, is an attorney at Garrett and has long been prominent as a labor leader, devoting most of his time to the interests of the order of railroad trainmen. His duties take him to various states and he is an earnest, forcible and interesting platform speaker. At the time of Congressman Cline's first nomination Mr. Feick was also a candidate for nomination at the democratic convention, which was held at Kendallville.

Normally the Steuben-DeKalb district is republican, Steuben county making it so, but at the election held four years ago Stephen Powers, of Angola, a democrat, was elected.

HUNTINGTON TICKET NAMED.

Former Prosecutor Nominated for Judge Over Four Opponents.

Huntington, Ind., June 13.—George M. Eberhart, former prosecutor of Huntington county, was nominated over four opponents for judge of the Huntington circuit court on the fourth ballot at the county republican nominating convention yesterday. COLUMBIA CITY HAS FEVER.

Now Beautifying Her Streets With Ornamental Lights.

Columbia City, Ind., June 13.—The work of beautifying the city in the way of having ornamental lights along the streets is still moving along and it now seems that the general business public has the fever. Within the next three weeks four of these new lights will be placed on Van Buren street in the square between Chauncey and Main streets on the north side of the street. Each post is to have a cluster of five lights, and after they are installed expense of globes or repairs is to be stood by the business men. The cost of these new posts will reach probably $260, which will cover the installation, and William Miller, who received the contract, stated that the lights would be ready for operation not later than July 1.

THE BIG CLOCK AT WINONA LAKE

Must Strike $25,000 for the Winona Assembly by the First of July.

Winona Lake, Ind., June 13.—Three captains have been appointed at Winona Lake. They are W. H. Collison, the Rev. Hayes Willis and C. C. Van Nuys. These three men, each assisted by eight persons, have charge of the campaign at Winona Lake to raise $25,000 before July 1.

A big clock has been placed on the roof of the east porch of the administration building, where it can be plainly seen by all persons passing that way. The hand of this clock indicates each day the amount of money raised in behalf of Winona. The three captains named, assisted by their committees, have undertaken to raise a total of $25,000, and up to date the hand of the clock points to the $10,000 mark.

Mr. Collison has charge of the first district, which begins at the entrance building and extends to Auditorium boulevard. Mr. Willis has the second district, which includes all the island. The third district, presided over by Mr. Van Nuys, takes in all of Winona not included in the other two districts.

A house-to-house canvass is being made on the park grounds, and letters are being mailed by the committees to cottagers who are absent from Winona. Up to this time the outlook is bright for raising the $25,000 on the park.

A number of checks were taken in, one for $223 being cashed in Toledo by the Second National bank of that city. Nelson Brayton, an alleged accomplice, was arrested at Bronson, Mich., last week. Millsville Man Was Keen But Strangers Got His $200.

OTHER INDIANA NEWS

Indianapolis, June 13.—John Miller, of Millsville, Henry county, is out $200 and has lost confidence in city folk with good manners, following a session he held yesterday with two strangers. But in the face of his adversity he told the police that he still believes that he is good at "matching pennies."

Miller came to Indianapolis yesterday and met two strangers who engaged him in a penny-matching contest. Miller invariably won and the stakes were raised until at last the purse was $200. Miller again won, but the stranger refused to pay, saying he was not sure that Miller would have paid, had he lost. To prove that he was honest, Miller went to his home and returned with $200.

Both men were to place their money with a purse holder at one of the uptown hotels. The purse holder was called suddenly to the telephone and Miller, after several hours waiting told his story to the police.

Young Allen was wading in shallow water of White river near the bank, when he unexpectedly walked into a "stepoff." Unable to swim, he emitted a scream and sank beneath the water. The cousin, swimming some distance away, heard the cry and immediately started to the aid of his drowning relative. The youth had gone under the third time when Frank reached the spot. Diving, he managed to get a hold on his cousin's hair and by this means raised him to the surface and swam with him to the shore. A movement is on to call the attention of the Carnegie Hero commission to the incident.

What Electors Might Do.

That was a rather ingenious bit of buncombe injected into the furious maelstrom at Chicago yesterday by the resourceful Mr. Flinn, Pittsburg apostle of the uplift in politics when he declared that if the presidential nomination is "stolen" from Mr. Roosevelt and given to President Taft, the Roosevelt regime purposes to turn its attention to the presidential electors. He would have those electors who are favorable to Mr. Roosevelt cast their votes for him in the electoral college, regardless of the fact that Mr. Taft's name adorned the head of the ticket.

As a matter of fact, there is no legal restraint against the electors doing just that if they choose to do so and are willing to take their chances of escaping with unbroken heads the next time they meet the "other fellows" outside. Under our system of electing presidents, the presidential elector is only morally bound to vote for his party nominee. He can change his mind about it if he cares to do so and vote for Mr. Smashpipes or any other qualified American citizen whose name happens to occur to him when the electoral college meets after the votes have been counted in November. It would be revolutionary, but not impossible.

However, the country is not apt to take Mr. Flinn's scheme seriously. It is extremely doubtful if the men who have achieved standing in their party sufficient to win for them the distinction of being chosen as presidential electors will be susceptible to any freakish plan that would send them into eternal political banishment. Mr. Flinn was merely contributing a bit to the dazzling color scheme of that inspiring effort at patriotic uplift now being staged at Chicago.

Another "Dead Man's Crossing" in Indiana is doomed under the action of the state railroad commission, which has directed its order against a particular grade crossing on the Lake Erie and Western line near Noblesville. When one comes to think of it, a good many communities have these spots where some grim tragedy in days gone by has fixed the appellation of "Dead Man's Crossing" upon it. Fortunately under the power of the rail commission a number of these have been eliminated by the construction of subways or viaducts. More of them are slated to go, and the day is coming when the subway or the viaduct will replace every grade crossing at which traffic reaches any considerable proportions.

If any of the Twelfth district Roosevelt leaders who are dashing heroically into the fray at Chicago are permitted to return home with lower rank than a brigadier general after this cruel war is over, we shall have another confirmation of the charge that republics are ungrateful and that personal bravery and lofty patriotism are frequently denied the boon of a square deal.

One excellent way of demonstrating that we are in favor of civic beautification would be to cut the weeds before the city health department finds it necessary to adopt harsh measures that may prove both expensive and unpleasant to the man who neglects to make at least this contribution to the civic uplift.

Strict enforcement of the legal requirement that fifty pounds of ice in Fort Wayne shall actually weigh fifty pounds will probably provoke something like an epidemic of return to the old query regarding the desirability of being the ice merchant.

THE PRESS DISCUSSES THE BANKING INQUIRY.

Secrets.

Washington Post: "Congress, of course, has the power to unlock national bank secrets by repealing a restrictive clause in the currency law. But as for state banks, the house committee, as Mr. Pujo has admitted, 'already has all the powers which congress can give it in this regard,' meaning none, or, anyway, none empowering the committee to override state banking laws."

Mass of Data.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: "Congress and the government officials already have an immense mass of data relating to the financial affairs of this and other countries and do not need to make any extended investigation of facts and conditions. The need is rather for intelligent legislation based on information already at hand."

"Bugaboo."

Indianapolis Star: "The campaign is almost upon us and the money trust, with no facts uncovered, is not, there is reason to believe, enough of a bugaboo to do much service as a campaign club."

"Political Struggle."

New York Evening Post: "Some of the warmest and most aggressive advocates of the 'money trust inquiry' have from the first deprecated the active pursuance of the investigation during the political struggle."

"Essential Question."

Philadelphia Record: "There is no doubt of the concentration of banking capital in the Wall street district, but the essential question is whether this concentration has been used to strangle outside enterprises or to manipulate the markets."

Legislation.

Baltimore Evening Sun: "The need for revised monetary legislation is urgent. It will take a great deal of discussion and a great deal of popular opinion to get a proper bill through the house and senate, and the sooner the ball is started rolling the better."

Customs and Canons.

New York Globe: "The country is willing enough to have a money trust inquiry. But the inquiry should not be such a one as will frighten every country banker who is the victim of rather than a partner in the money trust, if there is one. It should not affront every high minded banker by asking him to violate the sound and conservative customs and canons of his calling."

State Rights.

Troy Times: "A Buffalo gentleman 'rubs it in' by showing how the money trust inquiry, if embracing such institutions as the trust company, is furnishing an argument for enlarging and concentrating federal power—all of which is calculated to make Thomas Jefferson, ostensibly the patron saint of democracy and the father of state rights, turn in his grave."

THE "CONTESTS" AND DECENCY

(Chicago Record-Herald.)

As an independent and unprejudiced newspaper, the Record-Herald is free to state that it has not apologized, and would not condone or apologize, for a single unfair or "raw" decision of the republican national committee. Had there been any "strong-arm" work, any "steam-roller" tactics, the Record-Herald would have been among the first to warn and protest in the name of political morality as well as mere party expediency. What are the facts, what is the plain truth?

Of the eighty-four contested seats passed on by the national committee up to Monday evening only four presented the appearance of merit to the "Roosevelt members." In all the other cases the decisions were unanimous. In the four doubtful cases Committeeman Rogers of Wisconsin, a LaFollette supporter, stated the weight of evidence to have been on the Taft side. In the Ninth Alabama district contest Committeeman Lyon of Texas, a Roosevelt stalwart, voted with the majority.

A decent regard for ordinary honesty should have restrained even violent partisans from yelling murder, theft and fraud, from denouncing crimes never even threatened, from indulging in threats and bluster apropos of a "steam-roller" that no one had yet seen, heard or smelled. Yet we read of petitions to committeemen begging or warning them not to "continue" to do—what? We read of decisions to "bolt" if the committee "persists" in—what? In rendering unanimous decisions, or in giving honest judgment in accordance with the weight of the evidence?

The Record-Herald is booming no candidacy of its own. It stands for justice, truth and honor in the present situation. It is bound to state that the republican national committee up to this date has discharged its obligations impartially and honorably.

Give the committee fair play.

COST.

Question: If I should spend 40 cents every time I went to Robison park, how many times would I have to stay at home and save this 40 cents so as to enable me to pay my portion of the bond issue of $200,000, twenty-five years hence, when the probable population of the city would be 125,000?

Answer: Only four.

It would not be a serious matter to stay home from Robison park, provided you had better parks and better boating facilities right in the heart of the city, which you could reach without paying out any street car fare.

A BUREAU OF MATRIMONY.

(New York World.)

Following the route marked out by the advocates of eugenics, scientific mating, sane marriage and similar innovations, but hastening to get to the head of the procession, comes a Boston physician proposing the establishment of a "Marriage-Aid Bureau" at Washington as a part of our national governmental machinery. The duties of the bureau would be, of course, to investigate, supervise and regulate everything pertaining to courtship and marriage.

This is not unexpected. An eagerness for governmental control is one of the most characteristic features of American sociological monomania. We find it developing in the simplest as well as in the most complex movements for innovation, reformation or mere mutation. Whereas in the bureaucratic, government-ridden countries of the old world, reformers are asking relief in revolution or in anarchy, we in our freedom seem bent on transmitting to our children no freedom except that of exemption from parental control.

Became Young By Auto Suggestion.

It isn't often that a hair restorer is given credit for restoring the youthful vigor of the body. But an interesting case recently happened where a lady of 45 was prematurely gray, and whose hair was thin, lifeless and faded, had made up her mind she was already an old woman because of her appearance, and began to age rapidly in many ways, all on account of what her mirror told her. A friend happened to get her to try a hair restorer, which permanently renewed her hair to its natural youthful color, and gave it all the fluffiness, gloss and vigor of her girlhood days. So youthful and pretty did it make her that the drawn lines in her face disappeared, and unconsciously her stooping walk changed to a light, springy step, and beauty, youth and a light heart were against hers. Her husband was so delighted at her improvement that he, too, tried this preparation with the same effect. Miss M. Barth, 20c West Berry St., Fort Wayne, Indiana, has this same preparation in stock, which is the only safe and scientific one to restore faded and gray hair to its natural youthful color. It is called Urico Gray Hair Restorer, which is guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906, by F. Uhry & Co., Chicago. It is absolutely harmless, its use cannot be detected, it promotes a luxuriant growth and makes the hair vigorous and fluffy. If your hair is gray or faded, it will give it the richness and color that naturally belongs to it, bringing back to you a youthful, beautiful appearance. Ask Miss M. Barth about it today. 5-23-th-5t

POLITICS ENDS OLD FEUD.

McCoy Now Supporting a Hatfield for Governor.

Bluefield, W. Va., June 13.—That the Hatfield-McCoy feud, one of the oldest and bloodiest in the history of the West Virginia-Kentucky border, has ended for all time, was indicated today when Dr. H. J. Hatfield, cousin of "Devil Anse" Hatfield, leader of the Hatfield clan, received a telegram from A. J. McCoy, leader of the McCoy faction, indorsing his candidacy for governor of West Virginia.

The telegram was dated at Princeton, W. Va., and read: "Greetings to Dr. Hatfield from a McCoy. Congratulations. That you may win in November is my desire."

Dr. Hatfield was nominated for governor at the republican primaries last week.

LIQUOR MEN DID NOT GAIN POINT

Judge Merryman Orders Destruction of Fair Ground Liquor.

APPEAL BOND GIVEN

Following an argument in which Attorney Elmer Leonard and John W. Eggeman failed to persuade Judge J. D. Merryman to change his finding in the fair ground liquor case and insert in his ruling the words "beer, whisky, gin and wine," instead of the general term "intoxicating liquor," the jury today entered in the circuit court an order directing Sheriff A. M. Reichelderfer to destroy the liquor seized at the Driving park during the Allen county fair last September.

This was followed by the filing of an appeal bond for $1,000 on which Oehmig Bird and Herman Tapp became the sureties and the issues will be submitted to the supreme court of Indiana. In the course of the argument there were some warm exchanges between the counsel and court, but the point was lost to the liquor men and one more victory was scored for the W. C. T. U.

Under a section of the Proctor law the sale without license of whisky, wines, beer and gin and other beverages containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol is forbidden. Attorneys Albert E. Thomas and T. E. Ellison resisted the effort to change the wording of the finding because they looked upon it as having for its purpose the upsetting of all their proof, as the court might hold that they are compelled to show by chemical analysis that the liquors sold and offered for sale contained more than the percentage of alcohol designated in the statute. Judge Merryman held that this clause of the Proctor law was inserted for the sole purpose of protecting the sellers of drinks commonly known as "near beers."

It will probably be a couple of years before a final decision will be reached in the case as the long record is to be made up and the case will have to take its place and be heard in its regular order. In the meantime the liquors will be held in storage and the cost will probably exceed their value before they are finally released.

Verdict for $4,750.

A jury in the circuit court today returned a verdict for $4,750 in favor of Rebecca Eady in her suit against the City of Decatur. The case had been on trial for two days. POTASH FACTORY NOT A NUISANCE

Neighbors Complained But Evidence Did Not Sustain Affidavit.

CITY COURT DOCKET

Following a trial in which most all the people living in the neighborhood of 629 Glasgow avenue testified, an indefinite continuance was entered today in the case in the city court against Martin Bisson, charged with maintaining a nuisance.

He has a potash factory and complaint was made by Fred Schroeder that in addition to great volumes of dust there was a bad odor arising from the place, but there were plenty of witnesses to testify that the factory was covered and that its presence is not objectionable.

Siemon, son of the late Dr. Otto Siemon, well known and prominent resident of Fort Wayne for many years, took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride. The bride had two attendants, her cousin, Miss Pauline Schnitker, who was maid of honor, and a cousin of the groom, Miss Olga Meyer, as bridesmaid. Rev. Paul Miller, an intimate friend of the groom, was best man. Miss Pauline Schust played the wedding music as the bridal party took their places in the parlor where an arrangement of palms, ferns, syringa and peony blossoms made a pretty effect and the solemn marriage service was read. The bride looked very attractive and was handsomely gowned in a white silk voile made with a slight train and trimmed with pearl ornaments and silk fringe. She wore a veil fastened to her hair with a tiny wreath of smilax and held a beautiful shower bouquet of pink and white sweetpeas tied with gauze ribbons. The two bridesmaids were prettily dressed in evening gowns, one in pink and one in blue. Miss Schnitker was dressed in pink silk with trimmings of fringe and Miss Meyer was in blue with pretty ornamentation of white lace. Both maids carried beautiful bouquets of pink peonies in their arms. After congratulations had been extended the guests were served a dinner. The bride's table was trimmed with a basket of lovely sweetpeas and the cloth was draped with festoons of smilax. An elegant bride's cake was conspicuous on the table and the bride cut and served it. Garden flowers and palms decorated all the rooms. At the dinner many toasts were given the bride and groom the speakers being Rev. Theodore Siemon, Rev. Jacob Miller, Rev. Paul Miller, Rev. As pretty a home wedding as a young bride could desire was that of Miss Clara M. Heiskell and Mr. Arthur Frederick Schack, whose marriage took place on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lindenberg, 1204 Swinney avenue, at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Graebner, pastor of the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, in the presence of the immediate family, intimate friends and sponsors of the bridegroom. Miss Hilda Spiegel and Mr. Albert W. Nahrwold were bridesmaid and groomsman. Miss Esther Spiegel presided at the piano and played the bridal music from "Lohengrin" as the bride and her attendant came down stairs and "O promise Me" during the service. The marriage service was read in the living-room which was decorated beautifully with marguerites, peonies and ferns arranged in the bay window as a bower for the bride and groom. White candles lighted the scene and added to the decoration. Jars and vases were filled with peonies and the diningroom, where an elegant dinner was served, was trimmed prettily in flowers, smilax and ferns. Daisies and yellow shaded candles trimmed the bride's table. The bride looked very attractive in a beautiful gown of white satin, made with slight train, "dutch" neck and elbow sleeves. The bodice was trimmed with duchess lace. A veil of tulle fashioned into a cap and held in place with a wreath of swansonia was very becoming to the bride and a bouquet of bride roses lent the finishing touch. The bridal party took their places in front of a group of ferns and Rev. John H. Bosch, of St. John's Reformed church, of which both bride and groom are active members, read the impressive marriage service. The bride never looked lovelier than in her wedding costume of white embroidery. She wore a wreath of smilax and white roses in her hair and carried an armful of bride roses. The bridesmaid wore a becoming dress of light blue messaline and a corsage bouquet of roses. The house decorations were peonies, white and pink carnations and ferns. At 6 o'clock an elaborate wedding supper was served. The table was beautifully decorated with smilax and carnations and the center of the table was graced with a splendid wedding cake. VICTORIA BOUQUETS FOR THE JUNE BRIDE

The bride's bouquet is the crowning point in her attire.

The very elaborate bouquet of previous seasons has been supplanted this year by the prim Victoria bouquets with their quaint lace papers. So the up-to-the-minute June bride of 1912 will carry one.

The bouquet illustrated is made of roses and lilies completely enclosed by maidenhair. The old fashioned lace paper is a sort of outside frill and holds the flowers and ferns closely in place.

The satin ribbon shower, the length of which depends somewhat on individual taste, is caught with lilies of the valley and maidenhair sprays.

THE FIRST BRIDE CAKE.

The bride cake is an institution of extreme antiquity. In the early Roman period the principal part of a marriage ceremony consisted of the taking by the two contracting parties of a cake made of flour, salt and water in the presence of a high priest and ten witnesses.

Nowadays there is a slight difference between the bride's cake, which is cut at the supper, and the wedding cake, which is given or sent to friends in small pasteboard boxes.

STATE AID SAVES 56 FROM RABIES

Free Pasteur Treatment Has Been Successful in All Cases.

SCOPE OF THE WORK

Indianapolis, June 13.—Fifty-six persons have been given free treatment for the prevention of hydrophobia under the state's free Pasteur law, according to a statement from Dr. J. P. Simonds, superintendent of the laboratory of hygiene of the state board of health. The report includes all cases before the physicians to June 1, 1912, and nine other persons were being treated on that date. The law has been in operation since the 1911 general assembly.

In the first ten instances the virus used was obtained from a private manufacturing concern and since that time virus furnished by the United States public health and marine hospital service has been used. In none of the cases has the treatment failed to serve its purpose, according to the report.

Of more than 1,400 injections given in the laboratories there has not been a single local infection. Dr. Asa E. Fletcher has performed the bulk of the treatments. Ten of the patients were less than 5 years old, ten were between 6 and 10 years old, nine were between 11 and 20 years old, nineteen were between 21 and 40 years old, six were between 41 and 60 years old and two were more than 61 years old.

Three Bitten by Horse.

Three of the patients were bitten by rabid horses, three by rabid cats and the remaining fifty by rabid dogs. The counties from which the patients came follow:

Bartholomew, 2; Blackford, 1; Clinton, 1; Dubois, 1; Hamilton, 1; Hancock, 1; Harrison, 2; Hendricks, 2; Howard, 1; Jasper, 1; Jefferson, 2; Jennings, 6; Marion, 8; Monroe, 1; Randolph, 2; Ripley, 2; Whitley, 2; Rush, 1; Scott, 1; Sullivan, 1; Vanderburg, 2; Vigo, 4; Warrick, 2; Washington, 4, and Wayne, 5.

"The treatment thus far has proved eminently successful," the report declares. "There has been no case of local infection from the injections. No patient has developed hydrophobia in spite of treatment, although in at least four cases the bites were severe and especially dangerous and the outlook at the time of beginning treatment was very grave."

Just received a shipment of men's and ladies' Blazer Coats. Prices, $4.00 to $6.50.

STULTS DEPARTS FOR WINDY CITY

Receives Urgent Call from Litman to Join the Ranks.

FOR QUICK ACTION

Urged to come immediately, Austin W. Stults, of this city, in response to a telegram received from Louis N. Litman, departed this morning for Chicago, where he will be expected to lend whatever aid he can in organizing the Roosevelt forces for the coming convention. He will also assist in adding impressiveness to the ranks of the republican party progressives. Mr. Litman, who went to the scene of the battle Monday, wired Mr. Stults yesterday to come without delay, as the stage is now to be occupied by the Roosevelt crowd.

Will C. Geake, chairman of the Allen county Roosevelt supporters, was also summoned to come at once and participate in the thickest of the fray, but Mr. Geake cannot go at this date on account of previously made engagements. He will, however, try to reach the firing line by Saturday at the latest.

"It is not that I or Mr. Geake or a crowd of Twelfth district Roosevelt men can do anything alone in boosting for the colonel's nomination," said Mr. Stults, "but when we join the others from all parts of the country and form together for united action, the southern delegates will be surprised at the strength of the progressive wing of the party and will also see for themselves that there is no hope for Mr. Taft, who is not supported by the progressives."

Like other Roosevelt workers, Messrs. Litman, Stults and Geake will find as their chief duty the pleasant, or unpleasant task, as the occasion might be, of lobbying for Mr. Roosevelt about the hotels, streets and convention headquarters.

Others Go Sunday.

Robert Dickson and Harry G. Hogan, Roosevelt and Taft sergeants-at-arms respectively, from Fort Wayne, will leave for Chicago Sunday morning and Lee Hartzell, former republican county chairman, with a party of twelve or fifteen Roosevelt men, will depart for the scene either Saturday night or Sunday. No special train to the convention city will be operated by the local leaders, but it is expected that a hundred or more will attempt to attend the sessions, which begin Tuesday morning.

The delegation from Fort Wayne will be about equally divided in point of number in favor of the two candidates. Street corner gossip in the city today, however, in a way demostrates that Roosevelt and Taft men alike are becoming a trifle disgusted with the continued antagonistic campaign methods of the two generals, and some of the leaders are now ready, for the first time, to even talk about a dark horse or compromise candidate.

"There will surely be a riot at the convention," said Mr. Hartzell this morning. "It will be the meeting of the age. Those who know they are in the right will not stand for crooked methods. Even the most crooked men wants to see fair play."

BIG DEMAND FOR SEED.

Dealers Predict a Big Acreage of Potatoes This Year.

"We have handled one carload of old potatoes every day for the last week," said Charles S. Bash, of S. Bash & Co., this morning. "That means that there will be a big acreage of potatoes throughout this territory this year, as more than one-half of the supply sold is for seeding purposes."

Mr. Bash declares that the farmers throughout northern Indiana are beginning to learn that good crops can be raised from late seeding, and a large number will not put late potatoes in the ground until the first of next month.

"It is not too late for seeding," he said, "and the biggest portion of the late crop in this section will be planted between June 15 and the 1st of July."

Former Congressman in Washington Urging a Compromise.

HE IS FOR FAIRBANKS

Washington, June 13.—Declaring that the republican party owes nothing to either President Taft or Col. Roosevelt, but a great deal to itself, former Representative Charles B. Landis, of Indiana, is in Washington doing what he can to interest republican leaders in bringing out a third candidate who will harmonize the discordant elements of the party. While Mr. Landis has his ideas as to who would be the most available compromise man, he says that events have progressed to such a point where the important thing is to eliminate the two principals at Chicago. In a statement given out by Mr. Landis last night he says:

"The situation from the Taft and Roosevelt standpoint is impossible when an attempt is made to reconcile either one with republican success. The contest has resolved itself into a personal one, and it seems to me that the republican party's interest and the interest of the country are paramount to the success of either one in the Chicago convention.

Regards Fairbanks Ideal.

"If we have leaders as we once had they will get together in Chicago, drop both Taft and Roosevelt and nominate some one upon whom all factions can unite. I believe Mr. Fairbanks would come nearer harmonizing all factions than any other man. He could be elected if any republican could be elected, and that he would make an admirable president no one acquainted with him and his public life would question for an instant.

"The republican party owes neither Mr. Taft nor Mr. Roosevelt anything. It owes itself a great deal, and the delegates in Chicago should consider the preservation of the party more important than the temporary triumph of any man and his followers. If not Fairbanks, Justice Hughes would be an admirable candidate. I believe either could be elected."

Mr. Landis' proposition created a stir at the capital.

Supporters of President Taft maintained that it was the veriest gossip, that the president could not withdraw and that the slightest manifestation of weakness would be the one thing to bring about the nomination of Col. Roosevelt. In the Roosevelt camp just as stout denials were made.

Try Skin Absorption Instead of Cosmetics

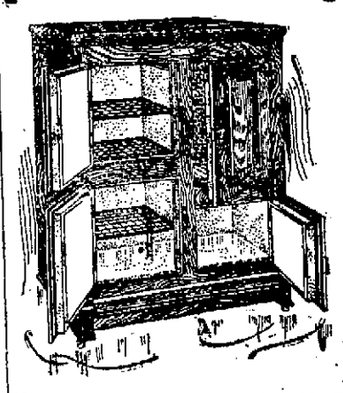

(From the Woman Militant.)

The constant use of rouge and powder invites a coarsened, roughened condition of the skin, eruptions, enlarged pores and wrinkles. If you've learned this from experience, suppose you quit cosmetics and try what I recommend.

Ask your druggist for an ounce of ordinary mercolized wax and begin using this tonight. Apply like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. Keep this up for a week or two. The wax will literally absorb the coarse, colorless or blemished top skin, but so gradually as not to discommode you at all. Just as gradually the clear, velvety, naturally-tinted underskin comes to the surface. And mercolized wax becomes your everlasting friend.

For those wrinkles and large pores, make a face bath by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel. This has remarkable astringent and tonic properties, and beneficial results come quickly.

FORTY-FOURTH COMMENCEMENT

Exercises of Sacred Heart Academy Attract Many People.

DIPLOMAS CONFERRED

A large audience gathered at the Majestic theater Wednesday afternoon to attend the forty-fourth annual commencement exercises of Sacred Heart academy, which is under the direction of the Sisters of the Holy Cross. The entertainment was a varied one, consisting of vocal and piano selections, solo and concerted singing and the presentation of scenes from "An Old Curiosity shop," followed by the conferring of diplomas and the awarding of medals and diplomas.

Miss Drusilla Gandy, of Churubusco, was the salutatorian of the class and Miss Genevieve Berling, of Decatur, delivered the valedictory. Both young ladies presented their papers well and recognized the merits of the school and expressed appreciation of the faithful work and daily kindness and consideration of the teachers. These young ladies received diplomas and medals of honor as graduates from the academic department, and Miss Florence Marie Weber, of Union City, from the musical course.

The program opened with a musical number by the senior vocal class with Miss Berling at the piano and violin accompaniment by Misses Weber, Schneider and Ashbrook. Miss Hazel Houder, who has a very pretty voice, sang "Knowest Thou the Land" by Liszt, with Miss Weber at the piano, and Misses Houder, Brundige and Ruch and with Miss Mamie Lassus at the piano, sang a trio and Miss Weber played from memory and with evidence of good training and assiduous practice as well as much natural ability the Liszt rhapsody No. 14.

Two tiny children, Virginia Hilbert and Gabrilla Katzenberger had a share in the applause of the afternoon when they sang "A Whisper from Erin" in a wholly entertaining way and "An Argument" as a number by the vocal class was called, brought down the house with its fun and the splendid way in which it was sung.

The junior class sang "Little Michief's Jokes," a parody on "Little Bo-Peep" with Miss Lassus at the piano and again the little children won the approval of the audience by their natural and cunning ways and sweet appearance. Altogether the musical part of the program was greatly enjoyed.

The scenes from Dickens' famous novel were acted by the Misses Lassus, Twomey, Houder, A. Sullivan, Cook, Oldknow, Ziegenfelder, E. Weber, Harmon G. Schau, Jauch, Gandy, Costin, Behler, Tarney and Berling. There were four scenes, each of which was interesting and particularly so, the Tower Hill tea party in which the famous Quilp hears what his wife's friends think of him.

The commencement address, an able and interesting one to both the students and the audience, was delivred by Rev. Thomas Travers, of Portland. The conferring of diplomas and graduating medals followed the address of Father Travers. Rev. Michael P. Louen, of Besancon, formerly pastor of St. Vincent's church at Academie, read the enrollment of graduates in the various departments and honors were conferred on the students by Rev. Joseph A. Lynn, chaplain at Sacred Heart academy. The list of students receiving honors and the departments of work which they follow are here given:

BASEBALL ATHLETICS

SECOND DIVISION IS THE HARDEST FOR LOCAL TEAM

Six Games with Each Have Been Played and the Record is Against Leading Clubs.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Akron, O., June 13.—Six games each with first and second division clubs of the eastern end of the Central league's dozen-club circuit have proven that the clubs below the Billiken nine in the standing have been the toughest for Fort Wayne to beat as the team secured an even break with Youngstown and Erie in six games and the three-to-two victory over Zanesville in the closing game there is the only win Manager Shaughnessy and his squad annexed in the battles with Wheeling and the Potters.

Akron has not shown as much form in the invasion of the western clubs as either Canton or Zanesville and Wheeling might also be included in this and if the Fort Wayne club expects to return home with an even break it must be prepared to get it right here. Akron's pitching has not been good because the Columbus club has expected Manager Lee Fohl to develop too many youngsters and this has proven a great handicap to him.

George Harden was a little bit superstitious about starting his come-back in the Central league today and he would not have kicked a bit if rain had arrived in time to stop the game or if the manager had picked some other man for duty on the mound. The game scheduled today is the thirteenth of the trip and when it is called to mind that it is the thirteenth day of the month there is little wonder that Harden would like to sidestep a double jinx.

Proceeding on the theory that jinxes neutralize each other when they mix the manager insisted on starting Harden today and up to the last minute that was the program, although it was open to change at any time before the umpire made his announcement.

In the concluding game of the series Billy Goldrick displayed the form that made him one of the Central league's most promising youngsters of the season of 1911 and although he stumbled once in the course of the conflict he managed to get his footing before the Potters passed him and his pards and when he steadied down he was strong right to the finish.

Carl Vandagrift shared the honors with Goldrick in the game as a daring run and a good slide into the plate enabled him to score the winning run in the opening half of the ninth. Speaking of Vandagrift the Zanesville owners were ready to swap most anything they had for the Fort Wayne second baseman and a managerial berth next year would have been his if it had been possible to arrange any sort of a dicker.

Then tentative trade of Ed Rogers for Carl Manda was given out. Claude Varnell has everything to gain and nothing to lose if it is consummated. It is up to the Potter management to get Manda in line and an effort will be made as the club is badly in need of a second baseman.

Fort Wayne took a lead in the third inning of the closing game at Zanesville yesterday when McLafferty waited and walked and by some daring base running and a good slide took third on Harry Martin's sacrifice. Blount hit for two bags and sent the run over. Roy Keener was able to get back into the game and in the fourth inning he chipped in a single after Shaughnessy had hit for two bags and scored the second run of the game.

Zanesville did not score until the seventh when Rogers opened with a hit and went to second on an out with two down. Huston was passed purposely and Gilbert shot a sizzling grounder down first base line in response to a hurry call for a pinch hit.

Fort Wayne won in the ninth. Vandagrift got a single and went to second when Shaughnessy failed to hit in an attempt at a hit and run play and was retired at first. Wheatly worked a wild pitch out of his system at this stage and the runner went to third and when Clancy hit a hard grounder to second Vandagrift got such a good start that he was sliding into the plate when the ball was fielded and no attempt was made to get him.

TRY WINDOW SMASHING.

Irish Suffragettes Emulate Example of English Sisters.

Dublin, June 13.—A campaign of window smashing was opened today by the Irish suffragettes who tried to emulate the deeds of their English sisters, but came into vigorous conflict with the authorities. After the women had made an energetic attack on most of the public buildings eight of them, who were armed with bags of stones, were arrested. The women before the police came on the scene, had set siege to and succeeded in shattering forty-two windows of the custom house, the postoffice, the land commission office and the police and military barracks.

JAMES IS READY TO GIVE BATTLE

McAleer Does Not Like the Insinuation That He Never Had Winner.

TELLS ALL ABOUT IT

By JAMES M'ALEER.
President of the Boston Red Sox.

If anybody wants to get a battle out of me, just let him ask me how it feels to be with a winner, with the implication that heretofore I have been associated with losers. I refuse to stand for it.

Of course, it feels good to be with a winner. How do I know? Because I have been with several winners. I played with the old Cleveland club in two Temple cup series, and I played with Cleveland against Boston for the national championship when the season was divided into two playing schedules.

In 1902, when I went to St. Louis to manage the American league club, I finished second, and the race was not over until the last week of the season.

In 1903, when Detroit, Cleveland and Chicago fought it out for the pennant up to the end, the Browns were in the race for first honors up to the last week, even though we finished fourth.

Some fans, who lack the sense of proportion, look upon a manager who never won a pennant as a failure.

There are baseball managers who have fallen short of the highest achievement, who are just as capable as those who have won pennants. A manager must have a great ball club and a great amount of luck to win a pennant. I have had several great ball clubs, but I have never had that edge of luck over the others to let me into a pennant.

In 1905, with St. Louis, and 1910 and 1911, with Washington, I finished in last place and I have been a manager in the American league for ten years.

I finished second once, fourth once, sixth three times, and seventh once.

That makes a grand average of sixth place. With just a few of the breaks I would have a first division grand average.

Collins, Mack, Jennings and Fielder Jones are the only pennant winning managers the American league has had.

I am proud of the Boston club, which will finish high up, but I have been just as proud of other clubs I have managed.

Elwood, Ind., June 13.—A Woman's Franchise league, with fifty members, was organized at a called meeting held at the public library yesterday afternoon and plans were perfected for the organization of similar leagues at Alexandria and Anderson. It is intended to arrange for the opening of a big county campaign here immediately with the view of lining up the representatives of the party victorious in the coming election that they may favor suffrage at the next legislature. A big street parade, to be followed by a public meeting and demonstration, is been arranged for the early part of July. Elwood will be the county headquarters for the league.

COLLEGE BOY TO PLAY AT CANTON

Gilhooley Will Join Club But a Catcher is Lost by an Injury.

TEAM IS SHOWING UP

Canton, O., June 13.—Gilhooley, a college player from Niagara university is expected to join the local ball club for a try-out as soon as his school term closes. It is said that several other class B clubs were after him because of the form he has shown.

Catcher Prozella, a student at the same university, was also to have joined the club, but he hurt himself sliding a short time ago and will not be able to play for some time.

Two weeks ago Canton fans were discouraged, for the prospects of ever getting into the first division were far from bright. Then the club was down in seventh place and in grave danger of slipping into the cellar.

Now conditions are changed, for Canton blossomed forth as a first division team after winning eight in a row. The club is now really in the first division, but after having passed the Blackstockings in the race.

After sixth comes fifth place and that is not far away. Another win and it will be just a game and a half away from the mark. It is possible and not improbable that Canton will be decorating fourth place by the end of the week.

The eight straight has caused the pennant hopes to spring up among the fans, for Erie is now less than eight games above Canton. So far Erie has been playing the weaker teams of the west, while Canton was meeting the stronger ones.

Now the conditions will shift, Canton drawing Terre Haute and Fort Wayne, while the sailors are tackling Springfield and Dayton. If Canton can keep on winning, the battles at Erie are bound to help Grenuminger, for either Erie will drop or Dayton and Springfield will come down. Fourth place or a shorter climb to the top—that will be the result of the battles in Erie the next six days.

NEWARK WANTED STARK.

When Owner Charles Ebbets, of the Brooklyn Nationals, traded Dolly Stark and Bill Schardt to Newark for Bill Kay and Bob Fisher recently, Ebbets offered Newark either Stark or Bert Tooley and Schardt as his end of the trade. Newark preferred Stark to Tooley and Dolly became a minor leaguer instead of staying in the big show because he was considered the best man by Joe McGinnity.

Stark has been playing left field for Newark.

KIRWAN ALSO OUT.

In addition to suspending Fred Alberts for ten days Manager Aggie Grant did as much for Kirwan and he is evidently expecting his staff to be strengthened by the addition of Patterson and Pickering.

MARTIN TO SOUTH BEND.

Dave Martin has been released by Grand Rapids and is expected to join the South Bend club at once. Ira Plank has been released. John Henry Meyers was also cut loose by the Grand Rapids management.

WIRES TO BABIES AFTER EACH OF HIS MAD AUTO RACES.

Bob Burman, the speed king, who will race here June 16, is the father of two beautiful little girls. One of Burman's first duties after a race meet is to wire to the little ones to assure them that their papa is safe. "Wild Bob," as he is familiarly called by his host of admiring friends, derived the cognomen from his reckless abandon and daring driving. Though he is independent financially he has no thought of abandoning the fascinating craze for annihilating space and cavorting around circular tracks and speedways, establishing new world's records and capturing the biggest and best prizes ever offered to the pilots of the sporting steel steeds. Burman to date holds all the coveted world's records and has in his possession the most valuable prizes and trophies that have ever been fixed for. His appearance here in Fort Wayne will be the signal for the other speedy pilots to groom their steel racing steeds and defend with their best speed, skill and daring their laurels when they face the starter's flag and start on a circuit of the Driving park track and struggle for the supremacy of two of the richest prizes ever offered at an auto meet, the Remy Grand Brazard and trophy and the W. B. trophy, each valued at $2,500, and carrying a weekly salary of $75.00 and $25.00 respectively. Burman guarantees, if weather permits, to lower the track record established by Oldfield some time ago.

The motorcyclists have applied to the management of the auto races to be permitted to stage two motorcycle races during the progress of the automobile races and same has been granted.

BLOOD POISON, TUBERCULOSIS, BRIGHT'S DISEASE, DIABETES, RHEUMATISM, Etc., CURED by the intravenous use of SERUMS, ANTITOXINS, etc., whereby the medicine is introduced, unchanged, directly into the blood stream; coming immediately into contact with and eliminating or destroying the poisons or toxins therein, purifying the blood, and supplying the diseased tissues and organs with pure, healthy blood thereby restoring them to natural and normal condition.

Remember, I keep the best of everything to be had in the way of treating and curing disease, regardless of cost or effort to procure the same. The best is always the cheapest and where so vital a thing as health is concerned it is the height of folly to accept anything but the best. HEALTH IS TOO PRECIOUS TO EXPERIMENT WITH. While I have cured many cases that have been considered incurable or have progressed to a stage where life was despaired of, it is much easier and much less expensive to the patient if I can get the case in the beginning or before you have been experimented upon by unskilled or incompetent doctors.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN—And nearly all nervous diseases are the direct result of chronic or imperfectly treated pelvic disease. I not only remove the cause, but my many years' experience in the treatment of NERVOUS and PELVIC diseases has enabled me to perfect NEW and ORIGINAL methods of treatment that bring about in a very short time a complete and satisfactory condition, by removing the cause of the trouble, instead of treating the symptoms as is generally done.

TRAIN LOADS OF DEMOCRATS

Two Western Delegations to Baltimore Convention Due Sunday.

MORE INROADS IN CHEAP LAKE RATES

Lake Shore Cut Out the Fifteen Day Tickets to the Resorts.

The first large delegation from the west to the democratic convention at Baltimore June 26 will pass through Fort Wayne, over the Pennsylvania, on two magnificently appointed special trains, next Sunday. One of the trains will run as the second section of No. 16, will leave Chicago at 8 o'clock in the morning and arrive at Fort Wayne soon after 12 o'clock, and the other train will be a second section of the Manhattan limited, leaving Chicago at 11 o'clock and passing through this city at 2:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

GEORGE BRAKE HONORED.

George U. Brake, draughtsman in the motive power department of the Pennsylvania shops, was the surprised recipient of a gold and enameled emblem of the American Insurance union. The presentation was made at Wabash last night by Dr. Hoagland, the national secretary of the union, at a meeting of the order. Mr. Brake is the captain of the drill team from this city which officiated in the initiation of a class of twelve applicants into the Wabash lodge. The badge consists of a gold bar pin, bearing the name of George U. Brake, and a gold pendant, with an enameled center piece bearing the initial letters of the order, A. I. U., on one side and on the opposite side the words "presented by the A. I. U." There were eighty people in the party that went down to Wabash from this city to attend the meeting. The trip was made on the interurban line in a special car.

NO MORE FIFTEEN DAY RATES.

Yesterday the Lake Shore took the fifteen day special rate tickets to Pleasant Lake and Angola out of the markets. There remains on sale only the commuter books. These consist of ten rides to, Pleasant Lake or Angola for $4.10, an average of 82 cents per head for the round trip, and twenty-five rides to Fremont and Ray, to the former place for $12.15 and to Ray for $13.15. Agent Phillips said yesterday that for some reason travel to the Adirondacks and other eastern summer resorts is much heavier this year than last. He is inclined to the opinion that the absence of special rates to the northern resorts is in a measure responsible for the heavier travel east.

IN MANUFACTURING BUSINESS.

Herman J. Bittler, who was employed in automobile works in Detroit for two years, has returned to Fort Wayne and formed a partnership with A. C. Manweiler. They have leased the fourth floor of the Schmidt building and are conducting a plant for the manufacture of miniature electric lamps, designed for signs, automobiles and use in dental parlors, physicians' offices and the chambers of the sick. The concern starts out with twelve employes and expects to increase the number before many weeks. Mr. Bittler spent several years in the Pennsylvania shops, following his graduation from a polytechnical school.

EXCHANGING LOCOMOTIVES.

The Pennsylvania has found it advisable to exchange some passenger engines with the Eastern divisions. The type of engines affected are the big K-2-A passenger locomotives, which are equipped with superheaters and mechanical stokers. The object is to get those engines made at a certain locomotive plant together, though there is practically no difference in the general make-up of the machines. Those coming here from the east were built by the American Locomotive works and those to be sent east were built at the Juniata shops of the Pennsylvania.

TAKE UP WORK AGAIN.

Adolph Hofer, R. T. Close and Raymond Ashley are again on the pay rolls of the signal department of the Pennsylvania, though they are working in a different capacity than formerly. These young men are Purdue university students, Mr. Close and Mr. Ashley having just completed their first year at the institution. Mr. Hofer has completed the third term and will graduate next year. Each works during the vacation term and the money thus earned is applied on college expenses.

REBALLASTING THE LAKE ERIE.

Work of graveling the Fort Wayne division of the L. E. & W. railroad between Fort Wayne and Connersville is being pushed and is progressing rapidly. From sixty to seventy car loads of gravel are being obtained from the pit daily and are being distributed all along the line. The equipment at the pit, which is located about six miles north of Connersville, consists of a large steam shovel having a capacity of over two cubic yards each dip, a large switching engine and two crews.

LESS BUSINESS THAN YEAR AGO.

V. B. Sharritts, of Indianapolis, of the Traders' Dispatch, Nickel Plate and Lehigh Valley route, has been in the city for a day or two looking up freight business. Mr. Sharritts says the volume of traffic over his lines during May did not come up to the business of the same period of last year, but he believes the outlook is good for the future. He comes here about once a month.

NEW OFFICE ON LAKE SHORE.

Effective June 15, Clare Hartigan is appointed assistant general passenger agent of the New York Central, with headquarters in Chicago. G. A. Robison is the general passenger agent and Mr. Hartigan will report to him. The office of assistant passenger agent has just been created to meet the growing demands upon the passenger department.

BIG PARTY OF STUDENTS.

Seventeen students from Concordia seminary at St. Louis, came up from that city on Wabash train No. 28 this morning and dispersed for their respective homes. Each had a big trunk and numerous other pieces of baggage and their arrival made business for Baggage Agent Louis H. Luessenhop and his assistant for awhile.

WILL RESUME WORK NEXT WEEK.

O. R. Paulison, Nickel Plate brakeman, who had a foot crushed at Wanatah six weeks ago, has nearly recovered and expects to resume work on the road early next week. Although Brakeman Paulison was badly hurt, he will not be crippled, the injured foot being nearly as good as ever.

MANY WORKING AT NIGHT.

The work of whitewashing the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop is in progress this week and rather than work at the forges and machines while it is in progress about half of the force is working at night. In this manner the work of the shop is not in the least interrupted by the house cleaners.

LOST PART OF FINGER.

While handling a big hammer yesterday George Danahy allowed the index finger of his right hand to get between th etool and a sheet of steel metal and the nail was stripped from the digit. The injury, which is painful, has placed the man on the off duty list for a few days.

ADDED SEVEN TO LIST.

The Pennsylvania added seven names to its shop pay rolls this morning. Two of the new ones—L. B. West and E. J. Bandelier—are college students who will work as machinists' helpers only during the vacation season. Thor F. Webber, A. F. Kraft, B. H. Shultz and Daniel J. Rumbaugh, laborers. H. Weigel, a laborer, resigned this morning.

TO ALTOONA ON BUSINESS.

B. F. Sarver, foreman of the boiler department of the Pennsylvania, left last night for Altoona on business for the company.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The G. R. & I. paymaster will arrive in Fort Wayne at 3 o'clock next Monday afternoon.

C. A. Shaffer, of the Pennsylvania shops, is sick and off duty.

Foreman Fred Beach, of the Lake Shore ware house, is sick and off duty.

Machinist Ehrman, Pennsylvania machinist, is off duty on account of sickness.

W. Dressel, who was taken ill Monday, was able to report for duty in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

Ralph Deahl, stenographer in the Nickel Plate offices, is taking a two weeks' vacation, a part of which he will spend with friends in Chicago.

Boilermaker R. A. Muskovin and Rivet Heater John Arthur Wyatt took employment in the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Machinist Willard Smith, of the Pennsylvania shops, is at Clear Lake to superintend the starting of the erection of a cottage which will be occupied by his family during the summer months.

George Ruck has returned from Wabash, where he assisted in wiring a factory for a lot of individual motors which were made at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

Adam Collis, machinist, who had been cast on a vacation trip, and R. C. Root, piece car clerk in the machine shop, who was at the lake a week, resumed work this morning.

Charles D. Rose, yard master for the Lake Shore and the Lake Erie and Western roads, is fishing at Clear Lake. He is one of the most enthusiastic fishermen in the city and usually has good luck.

David Prail, of Indianapolis, representing the Cotton Belt line, and J. B. McNamara, of Indianapolis, representing the Chicago and Alton, were in the city yesterday hustling passenger business for their respective lines.

B. F. Stonecifer, whose service with the Lake Erie and Western dates from the beginning of the existence of the property, resumed charge of his passenger train on the run south this morning. Conductor Stonecifer had been ill two or three days.

James B. Clizbe, freight agent at Fort Wayne for the Lake Shore and the L. E. & W. roads, is attending the annual meeting and terminal of the Belt railway in Toledo. These inspections end with a big banquet and are conidered very important events in Toledo railway circles.

Mrs. E. S. Kirby, who with her daughterhas gone to Portolia, Cal., as stated by the Sentinel Monday, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jenner, former residents of Fort Wayne. Mr. Jenner is an engineer on the Western Pacific, the famous Feather River scenic route to the coast.

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS.

A Careful Perusal Will Prove Its Value to Every Fort Wayne Reader.

The average man is a doubter, and there is little wonder that this is so. Misrepresentation makes people skeptics. Now-a-days the public ask for better evidence than the testimony of strangers. Here is proof which should convince every Fort Wayne reader.

Abraham C. Brooks, 221 Lewis St., Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "For a long time my kidneys were disordered and I had a dull, heavy pain across the small of my back. I felt languid, worn out and had a great deal of trouble from the kidney secretions. When a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me, I began their use and they restored me to good health. Other members of my family have procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Meyer Bros. Co.'s drug store and in every instance they have brought great benefit." (Statement given December 1, 1908.)

Re-Endorsement.

On July 1, 1910, Mr. Brooks said: "Every word of the former statement I gave two years ago, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, still holds good. I am only too glad to make the merits of this preparation known."

NEW TYPE ENGINE, THE SHOP FOREMAN AND THE MASTER MECHANIC'S CLERICAL FORCE OF THE WABASH IN FORT WAYNE.

The above pictures, taken yesterday afternoon by the Sentinel's photographer, show Henry Eisele, the general shop foreman of the Wabash, the clerical force in Master Mechanic G. W. Smith's office and one of the new passenger engines built by the Baldwin Locomotive works and received at the local shops Monday. It was connected up here and made ready for business and went to Peru last night to take a passenger run between that city and Montpelier and is now making its first trip over the division. Engine No. 670 is of the Pacific type and is one of the six new passenger engines to be put into service on the Wabash road this month. Four are already here and the other two are en route and are due in a day or two.

The total weight of this engine and tender is 398,000 pounds and an idea of its size can be gotten by the reader if he will remember that the man represented standing on the ground at the side of the locomotive is five feet, ten inches tall. No. 670 has 24x26 cylinders, with piston valves; has 387 two inch flues, 21 feet long, which have a heating service of 4,293 square feet; a firebox with a heating service of 207 square feet, making a total heating service of 4,500 square feet; has a grate area of 63 square feet; carries when in working order 200 pounds of steam, and has a tractive power of 35,360 pounds and has speed facilities of upwards of seventy miles an hour. This engine, as well as the twenty-eight Mikado freight engines that are also being delivered to the company from the Baldwin works this month, were constructed along lines designed by E. F. Needham, the superintendent of motive power of the Wabash. The parts are symmetrically formed, giving to the engine as a whole a most pleasing effect to the eye. The picture was taken immediately after the locomotive had left the round house, ready to make the run to Peru under her own steam.

Looking out of the cab window is Harry Bordner, the engineer whose duties are to give new and repaired engines their trial trip. Standing on the running board of the locomotive is William Pohlmeyer, Engineer Bordner's fireman, while standing on the ground at the side of the locomotive is Charles Z. Bond, Wabash roundhouse foreman, who has been in the employ of the company a quarter of a century.

No. 670 is the first engine from the Baldwin works on the order for thirty-four to be put in service, but all of the others will be in service inside of a month.

The lower picture represents the general shop foreman and Master Mechanic G. W. Smith's office force. It was also taken by The Sentinel's staff photographer, the men dropping their work for a moment and, without paying any attention to dress, posing for the picture. The personnel of the party, reading from left to right, is as follows: Chief Clerk P. A. Tompson, O. O. Rohrbach, Ralph Brown, H. G. Granger, Frank D. Post, General Shop Foreman Henry Eisele and Telegrapher John H. Eylenburg. With th eexception of Mr. Eisele all are employed in the little frame office building on Fairfield avenue, between the round house and the main shops.

MAJESTIC TO SHOW 'EM.

Motion Pictures of Speedway Race to Be Seen Next Week.

Throughout next week the Majestic will present to its patrons motion pictures of the Decoration day 500-mile auto classis on the Indianapolis speedway. The pictures are said to be the most complete set of films ever made of a big event.

They show the trial of practice drives, the workings of the trained crews of mechanics in the track repair pits, the start of the great race, the jockeying for position on the first paced lap of the big paved speedway, the grilling grind of the two hundred laps, the several accidents that occurred, the final finish wherein DePalma was almost driven to despair by the breaking down of his engine when but two laps from the goal with a fifteen mile lead, and the ultimate crowning of Dawson, the National driver, with the hard-fought and luck-earned victory.

TELLS OF VISIT TO FORT WAYNE

How the Summit City Impressed Logansport Editor.

FINDS OLD FRIENDS

(Logansport Pharos.)

The city of Fort Wayne is recognized as one of the most progressive cities in Indiana and it is growing at a rapid rate. While its industries are growing and expanding the work of beautification and adornment is not being neglected as its parks, well kept lawns and handsomely shaded streets, attest. Recently the Foster brothers purchased and donated to the city a large tract of land taking in both sides of the St. Joseph river for park purposes and a movement is on foot to beautify all the banks of the rivers which flow through the city. Large areas of undulating land are being platted for residence purposes and handsome homes are being erected miles out from the business center. If the growth of the city is not impeded these new additions will soon be covered with handsome homes. Fort Wayne now has a population of perhaps 70,000 people and the enthusiastic residents are hopeful that the population will be more than doubled in the next twenty-five years. It has long been prominent as a railroad center and it stands next to Indianapolis in the number of interurban lines that radiate from its center. It is surrounded by a rich agricultural region that produces all the fruits and cereals adapted to this latitude. But above all other things the Summit City has an active progressive citizenship. An air of thrift and activity prevails and its banking facilities are ample.

Under the guidance of Charles A. Dunkleberg and Emmett Mulholland the writer was shown during a brief visit last week about all there is to seen in Fort Wayne. It affords us pleasure to say that the Logansport colony established in Fort Wayne is prospering. Mr. Mulholland is the manager of the Indiana Lighting company and stands high in business circles. Mr. Dunkelberg is secretary-treasurer of the S. F. Bowser company, one of the biggest manufacturing concerns in the city and his friends will be glad to know that he has prospered amazingly since locating in Fort Wayne. John Rauch, who is at the head of the company engaged in manufacturing dredges, is moving to the front and the business is rapidly expanding. Bert Getty is in the employ of the Dredge company and is making good as a salesman. Aaron Greensfelder, who formerly lived here, is now a prosperous fruit broker. Bob Johns, former superintendent of the Logansport waterworks plant, resides at Fort Wayne and at the age of 74 is running a passenger engine on the Erie road. Emil Keller, formerly of the Barnett hotel, is manager of the Fort Wayne Country club and is getting along well. Like all people who have ever lived in Logansport the members of the Fort Wayne colony have an abiding affection for the City of Bridges.

THEY PUT AN END TO IT.

Charles Sable, 30 Cook St., Rochester, N. Y., says he recommends Foley Kidney Pills at every opportunity because they gave him prompt relief from a bad case of kidney trouble that had long bothered him. Such a recommendation, coming from Mr. Sable, is direct and convincing evidence of the great curative qualities of Foley Kidney Pills. The genuine Foley Kidney Pills are never sold in bulk, but put up in sealed bottles, enclosed in a yellow carton. Ask for Foley Kidney Pills. Refuse substitutes. Dreier Drug Co.

QUIT ORGAN-BUILDING.

Feature of Business to Be Superseded by Bond Piano Company.

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state for the Bond Piano company, of Fort Wayne, with capital stock of $100,000. The directors named are John B. Bass, A. S. Bond, H. W. Bond, S. C. Bond, G. M. Leslie, J. M. Barrett, J. M. Kuhns, C. J. Scheiman and Will H. Wiebke.

The new company was organized to manufacture the Bond piano, destined to take the place of the Packard organ, the manufacture of which will cease with the filing of orders to date. While being a separate organizaton from the Packard company, the directors are practically the same. The division of capital stock and the change of name were made to meet all objections that would naturally arise in marketing the two grades of pianos.

The Bond pianos will be manufactured in a portion of the Packard company's building on Fairfield avenue, heretofore used for the manufacture of organs. The Packard company will continue the manufacture of its high-grade line of pianos as in the past. Mr. Bond states that each year a lighter market for organs has been noted and that the demand of the people is for a popular-priced piano, which the Bond company is to manufacture. The capital of the new company is equally divided into common and preferred stock.

HELPED TO KEEP DOWN EXPENSES

Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle, and they saved me a big doctor's bill." For weak back, backache, rheumatism, urinary and kidney troubles, use Foley Kidney Pills. They help quickly. Dreier Drug Co.

SUPPLEMENTAL PETITION OF DAVID H. RANDALL.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 11, 1912.

To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Comes now David H. Randall and by way of supplemental petition to his said petition filed herein on the 14th day of November, 1911, says that on the 8th day of July, A. D. 1911, he was granted a license by the proper city authorites to sell intoxicating liquors at retail and in less quantities than five gallons at a time at No. 818 Barr street, in said city of Fort Wayne:

That at the time said city authorities granted his said license he had a state license which was issued to him by the board of commissioners of said Allen county, and which did not expire until the first day of August, 1911.

Your petitioner further says that on the first day of August, 1911, the commissioners of said Allen county refused to grant him a license to sell intoxicating liquors at retail at said 818 Barr street, or at any other place in said Allen county; and that at the hour of twelve o'clock on the night of said day, he closed his place of business at said Barr street, and he has not done any business at said place since that time, as a saloonkeeper, or in selling intoxicating liquors, either at wholesale or retail, at said place.

Your petitioner further avers that at the time he procured from the proper authorities of said city of Fort Wayne a license to sell intoxicating liquors at said 818 Barr street, in said city, he paid to said city authorities a license fee in the sum of three hundred and two ($302.00) dollars.

Your petitioner therefore prays said city council to refund to him the sum of $272.00 of said $302.00, as he does in his original petition filed herein, on November 14, 1911, for the reason that he was not permitted, under the laws of the state of Indiana, to continue retailing intoxicating liquors, or in the saloon business at said place on said Barr street, on account of the fact that the county commissioners of said Allen county refused to grant him a state license to sell intoxicating liquors at said place on said Barr street.

Your petitioner further calls attention to your honorable body that inasmuch as he had a license from the commissioners of said Allen county to sell intoxicating liquors at retail, at the place heretofore referred to, at said time, and there was no charge against him for violating the laws of Indiana at said time in that regard; he therefore urgently requests that said city council refund said $272.00 to him, as he says that it would be unjust and unconscionable in said city to retain his said $272.00, he not having the the right or privilege to conduct his said business at said place, on account of the action of said board of county commissioners of said Allen county in that behalf.

Your petitioner further alleges that he has been a citizen, voter and taxpayer in the city of Fort Wayne for more than eight years last past, and that he had been in the saloon business about all of said time and had never been refused a license to sell intoxicating liquors until the time above referred to, when a refusal was made by said board of commissioners of Allen county.

Your petitioner further says that he understands that subsequent to the time of the filing of his said original petition objection was made to the allowance of said $272.00 for the reason that said Randall owed the city municipal electric light and power works $18.39; and that he owed the city waterworks $3.65, and that he owed the city and county taxes in the sum of $18.91. Your petitioner further says that on the 28th day of November, 1911, he paid said water rent; and on the 11th day of December, 1911, he paid said city and county taxes; and on the 12th day of December, 1911, he paid said municipal electric light bill, and that he files said receipts herewith, marked, respectively, "Exhibit A," and "Exhibit B," and "Exhibit C," in order to further verify the statements made by your said petitioner herein, that all of said old indebtedness has been paid; and he further avers that his tax for the year 1911, as now shown on the county treasurer's books, is $10.11, and that he has paid the one-half of said tax, to-wit, $5.11, as shown by the tax receipt of the treasurer of Allen county, and is filed herewith and is marked "Exhibit D."

Your petitioner therefore asks that he be granted the relief as herein prayed, in order that justice shall be done him in this matter.

DAVID H. RANDALL,
Petitioner.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of June, A. D. 1912. (My commission as notary public expires on the 6th day of November, 1914.)

S. M. HENCH,
Notary Public.

Introduced by Paul Kinder.
Referred to finance and claims committees.

An ordinance approving a contract entered into by and between the city of Fort Wayne, by and through its board of public works, and the Fort Wayne Electric works.

Whereas, On the 30th day of March, 1912, the board of public works of the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, on behalf of the city, entered into a contract with the Fort Wayne Electric works for the purchase of electric lamps for use in the municipal electric light and power works, which contract is in the following words:

Agreement, made this 30th day of March, 1912, between the Fort Wayne Electric Works of General Electric Company, a New York corporation (hereinafter called the "manufacturer") and board of public works of Fort Wayne, state of Indiana (hereinafter called the "purchaser").

1. The purchaser desiring to purchase incandescent lamps for its own use, the manufacturer agrees to sell, and the purchaser agrees to take, within one (1) year from date hereof, and to pay for in accordance with the terms of payment hereinafter specified, a quantity of the Edison brand of incandescent lamps (all of which are manufactured under letters patent of the United States) of classes and types stated in attached schedules, which shall in no event exceed the purchaser's requirements of such lamps for its own use during the period of this contract.

2. The purchaser estimates that its purchases under this contract will amount to not less than 1,666.00 dollars, net value, and the manufacturer accepts the above estimate as a basis for billing and agrees to invoice lamps at the following discounts from the list prices given in the schedules hereto attached, and made part of this contract, which net invoice price is guaranteed to be at all times the lowest price made to purchasers purchasing in like amounts.

Discounts—Standard package, 29 per cent.; broken package, 19 per cent.

3. The purchaser agrees to pay transportation charges in accordance with the delivery schedule hereto attached.

4. The manufacturer agrees that, should the purchaser's purchases during the contract period in accordance with contract terms, reach an amount entitling him to a lower price as determined by discounts from list based on amounts purchased, given in attached schedules, the manufacturer will credit the purchaser's account with an amount equal to the difference between the price at which the lamps have been invoiced and the price to which the purchaser is entitled on the lamps ordered and paid for.

5. The purchaser agrees that, should the purchases under this contract and during the term thereof be less than the amount on which its discount is based, it will, within thirty (30) days after demand, pay an amount equal to the difference between the net billing price of the quantity of lamps actually purchased and the price to which it is entitled on such amount, as shown on attached schedules.

6. The purchaser agrees, that it will pay all invoices for lamps not later than thirty days from the date of the invoice, and if payment of any invoice is made within ten (10) days from the date of same, two (2) per cent. may be deducted from the net amount thereof.

7. The manufacturer reserves the right immediately to cancel this contract if lamps sold hereunder are used on lighting circuits other than those supplied with current by the purchase exclusively or those circuits located in buildings or on property owned, occupied or leased by the purchaser, or in case of the failure of the purchaser to comply with any of his obligations under this contract.

8. This agreement does not become binding upon the manufacturer until signed by its duly authorized representative, located in the sales office of the manufacturer at Fort Wayne, Indiana.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., June 13.—Wheat traders today remembered that this was the anniversary of the Leiter failure and seemed disposed to avoid the buying side of the market. September started at $1.05¼@1.05⅝, touched $1.05½, and fell back to $1.05⅜.

Prices suffered a further setback in consequence of word that new wheat from Oklahoma was moving to St. Louis and because Minneapolis reported flour mills closing. The close was unsettled at $1.05⅛@1.05¼ for September, a net loss of ⅛c.

Complaints of cut worms in the northwest had a bullish effect on corn. July opened at 74⅝c and rose to 74⅞c.

A reaction followed on account of the wheat weakness, but the market again rallied. The close was steady with July ⅛@¼c higher at 74½c.

Oats showed strength in sympathy with corn. July started at 50⅝c to 50¾c and hardened to 50⅝@50⅞c.

Provisions became easier all around, owing to the fact support was poor. Initial sales with September delivery were $18.12½ for pork, $11.17½ for lard and $10.67½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, June 13.—Dealings were light and changes fractional, though generally upward at the opening of today's stock market. Reading, Union Pacific, Steel, Amalgamated Copper and Colorado Fuel advanced slightly, with nominal declines in Atchison and American Sugar.

Today's early stock market was in most essentials a repetition of the preceding day. Trading was scarcely more active and no less professional, but the undertone was decidedly more firm. This applied especially to the leaders, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Union Pacific and a few issues in that class all making gains, but with little effect on the rest of the list. Bonds were steady.

The market closed steady. Dealings in minor specialties absorbed most of the limited business of the final hour. Guggenheim Exploration signalized its admission to the stock exchange by rising 3½ points.

TWO ROOF FIRES TODAY.

Damage in One Fire Was $500 and in the Other $10.

Caused by the sparks from the chimney, the roof of the two story frame dwelling house of John Wass, 1408 East Creighton avenue, caught fire at 8:45 o'clock this forenoon and was damaged to the amount of $500, a good part of it being from water to the household goods. A pretty big portion of the roof was burned. The departments from 2 and 8 responded to the alarm.

Shortly after the noon hour today the departments from Nos. 2 and 4 were called to 2013 Grant avenue, in the eastern part of the city, by another roof fire in one of the houses belonging to the Berghoff Brewing company. It caught from the sparks of a switch engine on the Nickel Plate side tracks. The loss was small, being estimated at $10.

Christmas Club

The Old National Bank Offers Easy Plan to Provide Money for Christmas

Everybody needs money for Christmas. Many people have trouble in providing a sufficient amount to buy all the presents needed when the time comes. The Old National Bank of this city, offers an easy plan to meet such a contingency. On June 17th it will start a Christmas Saving club. Members will pay in a small amount each week for twenty-five weeks and at the end of that time will receive checks for the total amounts they have paid in plus an additional 3 per cent interest. The plan is simple and systematic. There will be different classes of members. For instance, one class will start in by paying one cent the first week, two cents the second week, three cents the third week, and so on for twenty-five weeks, the last payment amounting to twenty-five cents. Members in this class will receive checks two weeks before Christmas for $3.25, with interest, or they may reverse the order of payments by paying twenty-five cents the first week and paying one cent less each succeeding week, which brings the last week's payment down to one cent. There will also be classes starting with two cents and five cents. Payments must be made promptly every week or in advance for as many weeks as may be convenient.

It will not only prove beneficial to grown people, but will prove very popular with young people. It is very simple and the details are easily understood when explained. Everybody is welcome to join and the Old National Bank will be pleased to have those interested call and learn all about it. Those desiring to become members can join after June 17th.

SEES SON DEAD; ENDS OWN LIFE

BOYS OPENED JETS

Chicago, June 13.—Loose burners on a gas range were declared by Coroner Hoffman responsible for the death of Mrs. Russell N. Edwards and her two young sons, who were found asphyxiated in their home in Glencoe on Tuesday night.

Testimony at the inquest showed that Mrs. Edwards went to a store at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, leaving her two children playing in the kitchen near the gas range. It was said the boys opened the burners and the fumes caused them to become unconscious.

When Mrs. Edwards returned and found her children on the floor overcome by gas she became temporarily insane, closed the doors leading to the kitchen, stuffed all cracks with rags and then lay down to die with her two boys. Eight burners on the gas range were found open.

According to Dr. F. P. Patton, who was the first physician to reach the scene of the tragedy, the three had been dead several hours. Mrs. Edwards was last seen alive at 2:30 and her body was found about 7 o'clock.

Opened Burners While Playing.

Investigation by the coroner showed Kenneth, 4 years old, and William, 3 years old, had been in the kitchen near the gas range nearly a half hour before their mother returned. That they opened the burners while playing was the belief of all persons who testified at the inquest.

Russell Edwards, an electrical engineer, with offices in the Monadnock block, testified his relations with his wife were pleasant and he knew only one reason why his wife should have taken her life.

"My wife became a mother last April," he said. "The baby died shortly after it was born and ever since Mrs. Edwards had been brooding over the death. Last week she saw a baby girl. She wept until I finally calmed her. Last Sunday a baby girl stood in front of our house and again my wife cried and took on frantically for several hours.

V. W. Woodward, Mrs. Edwards' father, arrived in Glencoe from Indianapolis, Ind., in time to attend the inquest. He said he had seen his daughter and her family last January and that she was happy and contented. He declared he thought his daughter had committed suicide, but he could suggest no motive.

The three bodies were taken to Indianapolis last night. They will be buried there tomorrow.

DIVORCE FROM COLD FEET.

Lean, Chilly Little Husband Loses Fat and Warm Wife.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 13.—Because John G. Wilfer, a wisp of a man weighing 120 pounds, a prominent merchant of Hazlewood, defiantly and vengefully placed his cold feet on his 300-pound buxom wife's warm back, after he had returned home from business and found no fire burning in the bedroom, Judge Cohen in common pleas court granted Anne M. Wilfer an absolute divorce. At the hearing of the case Mrs. Wilfer recited a long story of abuse at the hands of her husband. She claimed that for ten years he had abused her in various ways, such as "dragging her downstairs by the hair," had "beaten her up," "spit tobacco juice on the table and her feet," "pushed a revolver under her nose and yelled, 'Smell that!'" Yet all these indignities, Mrs. Wilfer claimed, paled into insignificance in comparison with "placing his ice-cold feet on her warm back." Wilfer claims that all their troubles were due to his mother-in-law, who came to live with her daughter and immediately attempted to assume supervision of his life and the household. Because he would not sign a paper placing his wife's property, valued at $50,000, in trust, Wilfer says his mother-in-law became a disturber and a menace to his home.

DIAMOND RING BAD WEAPON.

Goshen Youth Sustains Queer Injury in Fight Over Girl.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., June 13.—Injured in a peculiar manner, Robert J. Wurster, of Goshen, Ind., lies in a serious condition and may not recover. During a fistic encounter over a girl, whose company Wurster was enjoying at the time of the argument, Wurster was struck in such a way that a diamond ring on the finger of his adversary cut a large gash in Wurster's neck close to the jugular vein. Weakened by loss of blood, he was carried to the Welsh cottage and placed under a physician's care. Wurster does not know the name of his assailant.

To accommodate the demand for the Brady War Pictures, the Sentinel office will be open each evening until 9 o'clock. Now on sale. Price ten cents. 6-5-tf
